Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wells moved last week end to Portland where he is now employed by Timber Structures.

Two girls from the Vernonia high school junior class have found summer employment in private homes in the Portland area. Ruby Wells is with a family in Portland and Janice Garner is taking care of children for a family in Oswego.

Rev. and Mrs. L. Austin Shelton welcomed a baby daughter, Kristel Joy, May 28 at Tuality Community hospital, Hillsboro. She joins an older sister, Janice Lynn.

Mrs. Corinne Wall of Salem arrived here Saturday for a visit with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kullander were at Independence Sunday to visit relatives and to take note of progress on their new home which is under construction at that place. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. John Grady.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Wildt and David moved last week end to Reedsport. Their daughter, Patsy, will remain here for a few weeks with Gretchen Bolmsier and will then make a trip to Nebraska with Mr. and Mrs. George Peters before going to Reedsport.

A group of fishermen, including Tom Bateman, Harold McEntire, Bill Johnson, Bill Ferguson, Eugene Dove, Earl Dove of Rainier and Dave Turnbull of Forest Grove left last Thursday afternoon on a fishing and camping trip to South Twin lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hall of Springfield were here the week end before Memorial day to care for their family plot in the Pioneer cemetery. They were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Robbins. The Halls had had the interesting experience of visiting the Holt family at Creswell and seeing the eight Korean orphans they had adopted.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Whitchurch and son, Charles, of Alameda, California were guests the first of last week of Mr. and Mrs. Merl Ruhl. They had come north to see their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hays, get degrees at Pacific University, Forest Grove, on Sunday. The Whitchurches were Vernonia residents in the late 1920s when he was employed at the Oregon-American office.

Word from Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Dewey of Portland is that they left Friday morning for Salt Lake City, Utah, to attend commencement exercises at the University of Utah where their son Don received his masters degree Sunday and their daughter-in-law received her bachelor of arts degree. The Don Deweys will return to Portland with his parents. The Dewey's daughter, Joy, who is completing her junior year at University of Oregon, will fly to Hawaii for a summer school session later this month.

Guests last Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Childs were their daughter, Mrs. Bill Lumm, Kathy Lumm, Mike Phillips and Mr. Child's sister, Mrs. Walter Parker, sister, Mrs. Walter Parker, both from Portland, who came to attend the eighth grade graduation and see their nephew, Mike Mullins, receive his diploma. They were doubly pleased to be there when he also received the Paul A. Gordon memorial award.

Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Steers Jr. and M. P. Steers Sr. were two daughters of M. B. Steers Sr. and their families. They were Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Kuehn and family from Elgin and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bennett and two daughters from Sumner, Washington.

Cleve Mellinger was at Clatskanie Saturday to visit his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Mellinger, and his niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Mellinger. Both couples were leaving that afternoon for Klamath Falls to see the Oliver Mellinger's son, Bill, graduate at Oregon Technical Institute.

Cleve Mellinger went to Long Beach, Washington Wednesday with his brother, Will, and niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Howell, of St. Helens for a week of clam digging and fishing.

Miss Olga Peterson, English teacher at Vernonia high school, will spend the summer vacation at her home in Minot, North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Westerberg, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Eola DeVaney of Oswego, will leave Saturday on a three-week vacation trip on which they will visit Reno, Salt Lake City, Bryce Zion and Grand Canyon national parks, the Mesa Verde cliff dwellings in Colorado, and then go to Wichita, Kansas, St. Louis, Missouri and various points in Illinois and Minnesota to visit relatives. They will return by way of the Bad Lands of South Dakota, and Yellowstone park. In their absence Mrs. Ralph DeVaney of Portland will stay at the Westerberg home.

Miss Margaret Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wells, was one of 96 seniors to receive diplomas at Tillamook high school May 25. Miss Wells graduated with honors and is a member of Philokalon National Honor society. Instead of an outside speaker, Tillamook high school has four speakers from the class, the valedictorian, the salutatorian, a speaker chosen by the faculty. Miss Wells was the one chosen by the faculty. She also received a tuition scholarship to OSC and a $100.00 award from the Tillamook Nurses association for use toward her pre-nursing course. This summer, she is working for the Forestry department on the Triangulation lookout in the Tillamook Burn. Mrs. Maeva Brimmer began work this week at Vernonia Drug company.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Montgomery and family are vacationing this week at Paulina lake.

If patrons of the Safeway meat market think the butcher who is here for two weeks while Bob Montgomery is on vacation looks like someone they know, perhaps they met him on TV. Pat Shelton of Oswego, has appeared with Betty Davis on her KOIN Kitchen program in a series of cuts of meat sponsored by Swift and Company.

Bruce Hoyt flew to Alaska Sunday to join his father who went by car two weeks ago to prepare for resumption of their logging and mill operations there. Mrs. Bruce Hoyt plans to join her husband in another month or so.

Miss Janice Hoyt is another of Vernonia high school girls who has found employment in Portland for the summer. Miss Hoyt is working in the Monroe Sweetland home.

Week end guests of Mrs. Lulah

Fullerton were her niece, Mrs. Gladys Morrell of North Bend who formerly taught here, and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Forbes of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. James Latimer of Hillsboro also called on Mrs. Fullerton Tuesday.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kamholz last week end were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ford of Forest Grove and Mr. Ford's nephew, Paul Ford, and a friend, Charlie Busey from Detroit, Michigan who had flown out for fishing which was hampered by the inclement weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Thomas and Janelle were in Spokane last Saturday to attend funeral services for their friend, W. G. Mills, who had been killed in an airplane accident.

Friday evening dinner guests of the Walter Mathews home at Mist were Mr. and Mrs. Darrold Proehl and sons Jimmy and Jeff and Mr. and Mrs. Kerry Moran and daughter Shannon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bridgers, Mrs. Alfred Jones and June and Mrs. John Grady were in Corvallis Monday to attend commencement exercises at Oregon State college and see Loren Mills receive his bachelor of science degree in business and technology. Mr. and Mrs. Mills are vacationing this week at the beach after which they will go to Hanford, Washington where Mr. Mills will work with the General Electric corporation until called into the service.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stiff, Elvin and Lorene and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ray from Forest Grove went to Goldendale, Washington last week end to visit with Mr. Stiff's brother, Glenn. Elvin remained there to work on his uncle's 1000 acre farm this summer.

Mrs. L. L. Wells will go to Corvallis tomorrow to bring home her daughter Patty who is completing her second year at Oregon State college.

Mrs. George Noyer and her son George Wayne were here from Portland for eighth grade graduation last week to see Mrs. Noyer's niece, Peggy Jo Bowerman receive her diploma.

Mr. and Mrs. Weston Sheeley of Beaverton visited here Memorial day with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Jessee.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Thacker visited with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stowell and their boys at Buxton on Memorial day.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Nell Thacker were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Falconer and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stowell and sons from Buxton.
