IT'S A PRIVILEGE AND A PLEASURE TO LIVE IN VERNONIA

Farewell Party Honors Ashleys

MIST — Friday evening the Young People's club gave a farewell party for Mrs. Inger Ashley and her daughter Bertie Luz who have moved to Beaver to make their home. All the guests had a lovely time. The party was given at the home of Mrs.

Chas. Hansen. The Rev. Harshman was injured at the J-H Allied mill one day last week and was taken to the doctor. The injury was not believed to be serious. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kulju were down from Portland Tuesday. They with their folks, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hansen visited friends at Clatskanie and Quincy. Sunday afternoon the Walter Mathews attended the Jeannette

Dass-Marion Grant wedding in Vernonia. A few from the village have been going out with Mr. Corll to pick strawberries, beginning at the end of the week. Mrs. Austin Corll and Mrs. Shalmon Libel were Tillamook motorists last Tuesday. While in Tillamook they visited Mrs. Bud Goertzen and family. Visitors Thursday at the Sam Devine home were Mr. and Mrs.

C. Danielson of Rainier. Mr. and Mrs. Herb Edmonds and girls from Mayger visited the Clair Devines Friday. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. J. Thornton of Corvallis. The school children here had a picnic Thursday as a final finish to the term of school. Mr. and Mrs. R. Stuve are moving to the little cottage belonging to Lloyd Garlock on the upper end of the village.

The school yard was treated to a new fence in front last week end. Shalmon Libel moved Mrs. Inger Ashley and daughter Bertie Luz to Beaver last Saturday. The Austin Dowlings were Saturday evening dinner guests at the Bernard Dowlings in Vernonia. Among the Memorial Day visitors here was the sister of Clyde Johnson from Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Devine and family were in Banks Sunday evening and called on the Ed Danielson family. The Sam Devines entertained relatives from Olympia, Washington Wednesday.
