Pythians Plan Future Events

The ways and means committee announced plans for an Easter food basket at the regular meeting of Vernonia Temple No. 61, Pythian Sisters last Wednesday evening. Faye Davis, excellent senior, presided, in the absence of the most excellent chief, Mathilde Bergerson.

Silvia Wolff, district deputy grand chief, appointed committees for the coming district convention, which will be held here May 23, and other plans were also discussed.

The Temple voted to sponsor a 4-H club member at summer school at Corvallis again this year.

Silvia Wolff drew the hostess prize.

Following closing ceremonies, delicious refreshments of lime jello and green frosted angel food cake, in keeping with St. Patrick's day, were served by the committee composed of Silvia Wolff, Eula Blount and Cora Lange.

Practice for initiatory work was set for this evening, Thursday, at 8 p.m. and initiation for two candidates will be exemplified at the next meeting, March 27.

Mrs. Elizabeth Walters Given Birthday Surprise

Mrs. Elizabeth Walters was honored on her 81st birthday, February 28, with a surprise party arranged for her by Mrs. Albert Blount. Friends and neighbors came in during the afternoon to extend greetings.

Highlight of the afternoon was when Mrs. Blount's three year old son sang happy birthday to grandma, after which angel food cake and jello and coffee were served to the 11 adults and four children present.

Legion and Auxiliary Plan Anniversary Event

American Legion Post Commander, Stephen Waite, announced that the Vernonia post and auxiliary unit are inviting families and friends to a joint initiation Saturday evening, March 23, at 8 o'clock. The ceremony is being held at this time in observance of the American Legion's 38th birthday.

Legion Auxiliary Juniors Make 3-D Picture Boxes

Delicious cookies and fruit punch served by Lana Wilson and Teresa Towne were the center of attraction in the Legion hall clubroom Thursday, March 7, as the Juniors gathered after school for their meeting.

Beulah Slemmons and Margaret Hartzell of the American Legion auxiliary unit were present to demonstrate how to make 3-D scenes in shoe boxes. Each girl is to bring a peep-in picture box back to their meeting today.

Membership chairman of unit 119, Joan Waite, announced that any Junior who had not participated in the ceremony was eligible to be formally initiated with the regular members Saturday evening, March 23.

In planning for future projects, a committee, Sally Biggs, and Lorene Stiff, was appointed to find out the cost of scrapbook materials. Juniors are to bring pictures of scenery and/or animals to the next meeting.

Square Dancers Are Graduated

Graduation exercises were held in the basement party room at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hawkins Friday evening, March 8, for the 13 couples who had completed the eight weeks course in square dance instruction given by Mr. Hawkins. Those receiving diplomas were Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Aldrich, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Olinger, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Shelby Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minger, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hamnett, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Smejkal, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Quinn, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andereg. The two other couples in the class, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Steyaert and Mr. and Mrs. Art Miller, were unable to be present because of illness.

A number of persons have been inquiring about future classes and those interested may call Mr. Hawkins, HA 9-6003.

Rainbow Girls Attend Reception at Albany

A reception held at Albany Sunday afternoon to honor Miss Carol Hoteman, grand worthy associate advisor for the grand assembly of Oregon, Order of Rainbow for Girls, drew attendance from many assemblies, including Nehalem Assembly, Vernonia.

Those who attended from here were Jan Garner, grand love, who was escorted and seated in the East with other grand officers; Marjorie Reynolds, worthy advisor of Nehalem Assembly; and Carol Ray, Vivian Thompson, Vicky Serafin, Karen Hoyt and Freda Cotton.

Transportation for the girls was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linn and Mrs. Glen Hawkins, mother advisor for Nehalem Assembly.

VFW Auxiliary Anniversary Due

Mrs. Alice Cholowinski, district president, was a guest of the Vernonia V.F.W. auxiliary at its last meeting, March 12. Initiation was exemplified with Mrs. Guy Harris as candidate. Refreshments were served by Mrs. O. T. Bateman and Mrs. Fred Roediger.

At the next regular meeting, March 26, election of officers will be held, and on Friday of next week, March 29, the V.F.W. and auxiliary will have an anniversary dinner and party at the hall with the burning of the mortgage as the highlight of the evening. All charter members are especially invited to be present for this event and all members are urged to attend both the election and anniversary observance.

Holy Old Mackinaw Is Reviewed for Study Club

Mrs. Darrold Proehl was hostess to the Vernonia Study club on Thursday evening, March 7, at her home. Fourteen members were present.

The program was given by Mrs. Emil Messing on "Holy Old Mackinaw", a book about history of logging in the Pacific Northwest, which was very interesting.

The club will meet again this evening at the home of Mrs. B. J. Horn.
