Reorganization of Scout Troop Here Topic; Scoutmaster, Sponsor Needed

the Boy Scouts, was here last Wednesday evening to speak to parents and other interested persons who met at the IOOF hail in the interest of reorganizing the Boy Scouts here. Such a move has been made necessary by the resignation of Jewell Lloyd who has been scoutmaster for a number of years, and also by the need for a sponsoring group for the scouts in which there is a better representation of parents of boys of scout age so that the interest in the movement could be increased.

For a good many years, the Boy Scouts have been sponsored ocally by the Odd Fellows lodge high praise was given them for the way they have provided financial aid and equipment. Only drawback is the lack of interest on the part of members because they do not have boys in the scouts themselves.

Also, commendation for the work of Mr. Lloyd was given. He has spent long hours, has attended schools of instruction at his own expense and done a fine one | and ball game at the city park.

Wm. Holtzclaw of Forest | man job. Lacking has been as-Grove, district commissioner for sistance and support of the parents of boys who belong and the project is too big for one person to shoulder alone. Mr. Holtzclaw emphasized the need for cooperation on the part of parents and sponsors with the scout-

Outgrowth of the meeting was a decision to ask the PTA to act as sponsor for the Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts so that the programs of the three can be integrated and boys can move from one age group to the the other without any break. Also, because the PTA is the group which reaches the parents, it is thought that better cooperation can be attained there.

A Scout's mothers' club was also suggested which would assist with social activities especially and also back projects of the Scouts were their assistance would help. It would also be a means of keeping mothers informed of scout activities and what was expected of the boys who were participating.

Last evening, scouts and their families enjoyed a wiener roast

Reception for Teachers Set By PTA Group

the opening of school, has been set as the date for the annual teachers' reception by the executive committee of the Parent-Teachers association which met Monday evening. All parents are asked to reserve this date and come out to meet their children's instructors. There are a number of new teachers in both elementary and high school this year.

Marvin Meyer, neighborhood commissioner for the Boy Scouts. was at the meeting Monday evening to present the needs of the Boy Scout movement here and to ask that the P.T.A. consider sponsoring it as well as the Cub Scouts so that the program can be integrated and carried on more effectively without a break between the two units. The proposition will be presented to the organization the night of the reception and be voted upon that evening, also.

The September 9 meeting will be the first one for the new presi. dent, Mrs. Earl King, who was elected in the spring.

Clean-up Group Plans for Sale

The need to raise finances to carry on activities of the cleanup, paint-up, fix-up committee, which is headed by Mayor Don Bayley as chairman, was one of the main topics when the group met Wednesday of last week. The need to provide money for prizes led to the dcision to sponsor a food and plant sale later this month for which affair Mrs.

Omar Vernon will be in charge. ing funds were also suggested and will be investigated by the finance committee of which Bert Brunsman is chairman.

Some discussion also took place regarding uncut grass on vacant lots and old abandoned buildings and also on publicity for yard-of the-month awards. No information on new selections for the vards was available by Wednesday morning of this week.

The committee has scheduled another meeting for the evning of August 29.
