Keep Still, Blind Man

GEORGE N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

When told that Jesus was to pass that way, the blind beggar began to yell—"Jesus, Son of David, take pity on me." The crowd tried to stop him, but he kept yelling until Jesus arrived. Jesus, the Lord, asked him a question and then said—"Receive your sight"—Luke 18:35-43.

—BIBLE. From then on he could see trees, sunshine, faces, even as you and I. Are you also blind? Can you see your name in God's Book of Eternal Life? Are you set for new days and strength for this world and eternal life also? Both are God's free gifts. Only so you receive Christ into your heart as having died for your every last sin. Now by daily Bible and Prayer, grow up.

This Message by God's people who want to know. Geo. N. Taylor.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

"THE TRULY WISE"

The truly generous is the truly wise, and he who loves not others, lives unblest.

—Home

If there be any truer measure of a man than by what he does, it must be by what he gives.

—South

A man there was, and they called him mad; the more he gave, the more he had.

—Bunyan

Men of noblest dispositions think themselves happiest when others share their happiness with them.

—Duncan

He who gives what he would as readily throw away, gives without generosity, for the essence of generosity is in self-sacrifice.

—H. Taylor

He who is afraid of being too generous has lost the power of being magnanimous. The best man or woman is the most unselfed.

—Mary Baker Eddy
