Grid Eleven Achieves Win Contest Judges Friday 13-7 Over Tigers

Coach Vlcek's victory starved | two yards to go. With the local ernonia Loggers finally broke into the win column when they journeyed to Clatskanie last Friday evening and defeated that eleven 13-7 in a game whose outcome wasn't certain until the final gun sounded ending the contest.

PHONE HA 9-3372

The Clatskanie Tigers scored early in the period when they recovered a Logger fumble on the locals' 38-yard strip. From that point the Tigers sporting a strong running attack and a pass completion drove all the way for the score. Clatskanie's points occurred on a 2-yard plunge through the center of the locals' line.

Once again the Tigers scored in first quarter play when the Loggers punted to the Clatskanie 40, only to have the pigskin run back all the way for a T.D. Bad luck in the way of a five-yard penalty, however, robbed the Tigers of the score and the local eleven heaved a sigh of relief and took over possession once again and punted safely, this time to the opponents' 30.

At the end of the first quarter the Loggers on a sustained drive had penetrated from their own 30-yard marker to the Tigers'

With the beginning of second quarter play, the Loggers, stickng to a steady ground attack, drove all the way to score with the try for point being good and sending the game into a tie at Once again in the second period the Loggers crossed the Tigers' goal. The second score occurred when an alert Vernonia defense grabbed a Clatskanie toss on the Tiger 20. The Loggers, wasting no time and with the clock steadily running out, drove all the way for the score and crossed the goal with one minute left in the first half. Try for point failed sending the Loggers ahead at halftime 13-7.

eleven gaining possession, the Loggers controlled the ball and ran out the clock to take possession of their first game and handed the Tigers their seventh straight loss.

This Friday evening Vlcek's eleven will take to the field for their final gridiron contest of the current season when they will entertain the Nestucca eleven on Greenman field at 8:00 p.m.

Flu Vaccine Arrives

A new shipment of Asian Flu vaccine has been received here this week and is available at the local doctor's office. More is also expected soon.

Injuries Minor In Truck Upset

Ed Miller had cause to believe that the Halloween gremlins were on his trail last Thursday afternoon while he was on the way to Portland with a truck loaded with shingles. A front tire blew out, overturned the truck, and scattered the shingles. However, he crawled out with no injuries, the truck had only a broken glass and only six bundles of shingles were broken, so luck was really riding with him.

Serious Injury Narrowly Missed

Frank Pongratz of Vernonia narrowly escaped with minor injuries in a logging accident November 1 while he was working for the Fake Logging company near Lees Camp.

Pongratz saw a rolling log coming toward him and he fell in a hole and let it roll over him. However, a later smaller log. which he could not escape struck him

He was taken to the Tuality community hospital at Hillsboro by Fuiten's Forest Grove ambulance where he was found to have suffered rib and back injuries as well as minor facial lacerations.

West Oregon Members to Receive Annual Report

Members of West Oregon Elec. Oregon board of directors and a tric Cooperative are scheduled to receive this year's annual report featuring a resume of 20 years of cooperative power in the Nehalem valley. This will be the seventh year the cooperative has issued an annual report to its members.

Electric power supplied by an REA cooperative was first supplied in this state 20 years ago to people in the Jewell area by the Nehalem Valley Cooperative, the first in Oregon to receive an REA loan. Lines to members of that cooperative received their first electricity June 15, 1937.

Later, in 1945, the Nehalem Valley Cooperative became a part of West Oregon Electric when it was organized. Lee Wooden, city for the two previous years. I treasurer of the present West set aside.

cooperative was organized, was also a director of the original Nehalem Valley Cooperative. The 1957 report will also tell members the present status of loans made to this cooperative, the amount of interest and principal repaid and other details concerning loan funds. As of September 30 of this year, the cooperative had borrowed $2,172,-232.82 of which amount $283,202 .-72 of the principal has been repaid or 13.03 per cent. Total interest paid on the loan amounts to $175,245.94 and an advance payment to REA has been made in the amount of $137,576.30. In addition, a renewal and replacement fund of $30,000 and an emergency fund of $48,500 has been

The report points out that powmember of the board since the er supplied by the cooperative has been lower in cost to those who were receiving service when the organization was formed and that because Bonneville power became available, low cost power has been possible for all parts of the area now served.

West Oregon rates under the present schedule are from 30 to 50 per cent lower than rates before 1945.

Other parts of the report include a balance sheet showing assets and liabilities as of September 30 of this year, the sources of revenue and items of expenditures and photos of new developments in the cooperative area during the year.

The report is scheduled for mailing the latter part of this week.

Funeral services are being held
