So You Grow Up

GEORGE N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon

"Eat that fruit and you die." So God warned Adam and Eve, our first parents. Yet they ate the fruit and they died. So came sin and death into the world. You must be born again with every sin marked off your page. And eternal life written in by God. How? Believe and know that Christ died for you. Surrender and he will power you. With sin and death all about, read the Bible—pray—grow up.

Bible Church Slates Missionary and Film

The Vernonia Bible church has announced plans for an inter-church missionary rally tomorrow evening, November 22, at 7:30 p.m. at which the sound film, "Unsheathed" will be shown. Mrs. Ruth Wilson, missionary with the Wycliffe Bible translations, will be present and will also tell about her work. She is known to many here as she was recently supervisor of the Child for Christ crusade, a branch of the Union Gospel Mission in Portland.

This missionary rally is for everyone and an invitation is extended to all who wish to come and enjoy the service.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

HAPPINESS

Happiness is a butterfly, which when pursued is always just beyond your grasp, but which if you will sit down quietly will light upon you.

—Hawthorne

I am more and more convinced that our happiness or unhappiness depends far more on the way we meet the events of life, than on the nature of those events themselves.

—Humboldt

Happiness is spiritual, born of Truth and Love. It is unselfish; therefore it cannot exist alone, but requires all mankind to share it.

—Mary Baker Eddy

All who would win joy, must share it, happiness was born a twin.

—Byron

It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness.

—Charles Haddon Spurgeon
The foolish man seeks happiness in the distance; the wise grows it under his feet.

—James Oppenheim
