

Daughter Home From California

BIRKENFELD — Mary Ann Nordstrom returned home from California Sunday. She spent several months there working. She plans to stay home now and will care for her mother while she is recuperating from a recent operation.

Ted Bellingham and Monte came up from Astoria on the motorcycle Sunday and visited with relatives.

Mrs. Jim Garlock and Mrs. Fred Larson went to Seaside Monday to visit with Mrs. Delmar Jepson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Grace and son of Portland spent Sunday at the Robert Bergs.

Steve and George Koljones of Astoria are staying with Anna

Hanberg and attending school at Jewell.

Several from here attended the house warming party at the Fred Rumbaugh home at Jewell Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rodgers and girls of Jewell spent Saturday evening with her folks, the Francis Larsons.

Mrs. Zella Bellingham and Anna Hanberg were in Astoria Friday. They visited with Mrs.

Francis Nordstrom in the hospital.

Winema HEC met at the home of Anna Hanberg last Tuesday with a pot-luck dinner at noon. There were nine members present. After the regular business gifts were exchanged. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Francis Larson January 7.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Larson and Carl of Seaside spent Sunday

THE EAGLE, VERNONIA, ORE. THURSDAY, DEC. 12, 1957 5

with her folks, the Walter Carls.

Vernon Bolin of Seaside passed away suddenly at his home Sunday. He was a former resident here several years ago. Services were held Wednesday at the Mist church with interment at the Fishhawk cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cahill were in Portland Sunday to visit relatives. They brought their little granddaughter back with them for awhile.
