Employers Get Fee Reminders

Wm. A. Callahan, chairman of the state industrial accident commission, stated today that only about one-half of the 43,000 registered employers in Oregon have paid the $7.50 annual fee billed in a statement which was sent to them on Nov. 15, 1957. This fee is due and payable on or before December 31, 1957, and a separate fee is required for each account which the employer maintains with the commission.

Despite this additional charge, coverage under the workmen's compensation law can be obtained at a more reasonable cost than from most other sources.

Approximately 20,000 employers are engaged in nonhazardous occupations such as farming, retail sales, householders, etc., and workmen of these employers will not be entitled to benefits, nor will the employer have the protection of the act subsequent to December 31, 1957 if the $7.50 annual fee is not paid on or before that date.

If coverage is cancelled as required by statute, a registration fee of $12.50 must be paid to again obtain coverage under the act.

The last session of the legislature amended the law to provide this fee of $7.50 in order that each employer pay at least the minimum administrative cost of providing coverage under the workmen's compensation law. Any employer who is in doubt as to his status, or has questions regarding this fee, should contact R. G. Savage, supervisor of the firm division in Salem.

The Price They Paid

GEORGE N. TAYLOR
Portland, Oregon
Locked in the cell through the night, those early Christians gave themselves to Bible, Song and Prayer. Came day and tier upon tier, the vast coliseum fills. Then the cell door swings open and the Lord's people come forth. They felt the lion's gory mane; the tyrant's brandished steel; they bowed their necks, the stroke to feel; who follows in their train? You of to-day who plead with God to draw the lost up to Christ who died for their sins.

"No man can come to Me except the Father who sent Me draw him and I will raise him up the last day.—John 6:44.

SDA Children Give Program

Prior to the special offering taken last Saturday at the Vernonia Seventh-day Adventist church to assist missions, Myrtle Lines, Sabbath school leader announced Elsie Peterson with her group from the primary-kindergarten division.

The group, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Florence Hanson, sang, "The Baby King."
"When God says Wait," was given by three primary girls in the form of a dialogue. The main thought stressed was that God does things on time.
An acoustic on Christmas was rendered by the kindergarten group. The youngest member collected the special offering.
