First Grandson Brings Smiles To Vernonians

That big smile on the face of Joe Magoff this week is due to news from Clairmont, California informing him and his wife of the arrival of a grandson Monday, November 10. Parents of the young man are Mr. and Mrs. Dick Madden. She is the former Sharon Magoff. The baby weighed in at 7 pounds and has been named Shaun Leslie. Great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Magoff of Riverview.

Ministers Plan Union Services

Robert Sargent, pastor of the First Christian church, was named as president of the Vernonia Ministerial association at the meeting held at the Baptist church October 19. Rev. A. L. Argo of the Baptist church is vice-president and Rev. Donald Persyn of the Nazarene church is secretary-treasurer.

The group made plans for the annual union Thanksgiving service which will be held the Tuesday evening before Thanksgiving, November 25. It will be held in the EUB church auditorium and Rev. Beauford Miller of the Assembly of God church will be the speaker.

Tentative plans were also made for the showing of a religious film at a date to be announced later and plans were also started for a union pre-Easter service. The group also discussed the taking of a religious census in the schools.

John Whipple, county judge, was speaker at the October meeting.

Oregonian Carrier Working for Trip

Eldon Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Barrett of 1126 Washington street, Vernonia, who is a local Oregonian carrier, is one of the boys in Oregon working for a trip to Hawaii. One Oregonian carrier will be selected to join newspaper boys from across the nation as Young Columbus II's to make the trip. The contest is sponsored in Oregon by the Oregonian and Parade magazine and is open to all Oregonian junior dealers. Winners will be chosen for their outstanding business ability.

If he does not succeed in getting the Hawaiian trip, Eldon still may win a trip to the East-West football game in San Francisco.

Yost-Juola Vows Given In Lutheran Church Rites

Marriage vows were exchanged by Miss Deanna Powell Juola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Juola of Port Orford, and Rodger Allen Yost of Portland at the new Zion Lutheran church in Port Orford on November 1. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Attending the wedding from here were Deanna's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Nelson and her aunt, Mrs. Marble Cook of Beaverton. The young couple will live in Port Orford where both are employed.

Christian Church Women Renovate School Rooms

The Christian Women's Fellowship at the First Christian church has completed another step in their project of renovation and redecoration of the Bible school rooms of the church. The new linoleum has now been laid on the floors and an open house is planned for the near future so that everyone may see the improvement made. Mrs. Cassie Livingstone was chairman of the committee in charge of securing and laying the linoleum.

Mrs. Culbertson Jamboree Head

A group of Legion and Auxiliary members attended the Washington and Columbia county Legion Jamboree at Banks.

The following officers were installed: Commander, Isabel Culbertson; first vice, Lion Walker, Forest Grove; second vice, Ray Herstine, Scappoose; secretary-treasurer, Marie Atkins, Vernonia. Bea Crawford stood in for Mrs. Atkins who was absent. District commander Harry Culbertson acted as installing officer and District President Gertrude Schalock talked to the group on auxiliary affairs.

The Banks commander, Chick Eberly, presented Commander Isabel Culbertson with a rolling pin as a gavel as this is the first time a lady has been commander of the Jamboree.

Interesting information was brought before the jamboree by various members.

An enjoyable program was also presented and refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.
