June Wedding Planned for DeeAnn Cook, Geo. Trott

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cook announce the engagement of their daughter DeeAnn Cook to George Trott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trott of Bandon, Oregon. The announcement comes as the culmination of a long friendship begun when both were quite small when he visited here with relatives. During high school days, the romance began and was carried on during the time Dee Ann was attending Portland State college.

Miss Cook is now stationed at the WAC base at Fort Sill, Oklahoma and Mr. Trott is stationed at St. Paul, Minnesota. After their marriage which is planned for June, she will be transferred to St. Paul to complete the second year of her enlistment.

Oldtimers Dinner Is Set For January 24

Dwight Strong, worshipful master for the Vernonia Masonic lodge, sent out invitations this week to all members who reside elsewhere and former members of this lodge to attend the annual Oldtimers dinner which is scheduled for January 24.

The affair was started in 1933 when Emil Messing was worshipful master and has come to be one of the outstanding features of each year. The dinner is prepared and served by the men and this year George Johnson and Darrold Proehl are the committee in charge.
