

Pythian Sisters Name Candidate

At the meeting of Vernonia Temple, Pythian Sisters held last Wednesday evening at the IOOF hall, Alice Lindsay (Mrs. Robert S. Lindsay of Pittsburg) who is a member of the temple consented to be their candidate for centennial queen for the Friendship Jamboree. Her name, together with sketch concerning her is being filed with the queen selection committee.

Plans were made for the members to sell tickets for the grocery basket on the two Saturdays following the meeting. The drawing will be held at the next meeting, May 27. The basket is now on display at Strong's Electric and members who still have items to contribute, should leave them there.

Irma Chance was in charge of the Mothers Day program and presented lovely corsages of spring flowers to all mothers present. The corsages were made by Grayce Bundy. A program of songs and readings was presented. A letter was read from Pearl Wilkerson, temple mother, thanking them for the Mothers Day gift sent to her.

Reports on district convention were given by those who attended. Vernonia Temple had been complimented on their exemplification of the draping of the charter which was carried out by the temple officers: MEC Launce Cousins, Excellent Senior Lucille Hickman, Excellent Junior Ottilia Heckenliable and Mathilde Bergerson who filled in as manager and Isabel Culbertson who filled in as past chief for two of the regular officers who were unable to attend. The eulogy was given by Cora Lange, secretary, and Murel Knight and Irma Chance sang.

Following Wednesday's meeting, delicious cakes were served with fruit jello and coffee by Isabel Culbertson and Catherine Lentz. Gladys Strong, third member of the committee, was detained by business but her cake and jello was enjoyed.

In addition to the basket drawing at the next meeting, May 27, plans for future activities will be made.

Weller-Millis Marriage Vows Are Exchanged At Christian Church

In an impressive candlelight ceremony at 2:00 o'clock last Saturday afternoon at the First Christian Church, Miss Mary Ellen Millis, daughter of Mrs. Phillip J. Millis, became the bride of James K. Weller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Weller, all of Vernonia. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Robert Sargent, pastor of the church in the presence of a large audience of relatives and friends.

The church was beautifully decorated with baskets of pink carnations and white dutch iris which were arranged by Mrs. Carl Fowler of Eugene, aunt of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Max Millis of Portland, wore a ballerina length dress of white nylon lace over net. Her finger tip veil was held by a bandeau of pearls and she carried an arm bouquet of pink rosebuds.

Matron of honor was Mrs. A. F. Sword of Bend, sister of the bride, and other attendants were Mrs. Larry Holsy and Miss Jane Pearson of Roseburg. All three wore gowns of pink taffeta with overskirt of net and nylon tulle and carried arm bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Eugene Weller, brother of the groom, was best man and ushers were Don Wantland, cousin of the groom and Don Holsey.

The wedding marches and other music was provided by Mrs. Frank Serafin, organist and Miss Kathy Weller, sister of the groom sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Wedding Prayer."

The mothers of the bride and groom were attired in navy blue dresses with white accessories and wore orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors with the ladies of the church in charge.

The beautiful three-tiered cake, decorated with pink roses and topped with wedding bells and bride and groom ornament, was cut and served by Mrs. Gerald Millis of Monroe, sister-in-law of the bride. Mrs. Donald Wantland poured coffee and Miss Joyce Sullivan presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Robert Bates was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Eugene Weller, sister-in-law of the groom, and Mrs. Floyd Shulke took care of the gift table.

Out of town guests included the bride's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Sword and baby son, Bend; her aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Bell, Portland, Mrs. Carl Fowler and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Bell, Eugene; her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Millis and family, Monroe; friends of the bride's family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Cantwell and Barney Cantwell, Cannon Beach; Mrs. Robert Sword, Bend; Mr. and Mrs. Eimer Knoedler, Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Graham and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crabtree, Portland; and Mrs. Max Smith, Hillsboro; an aunt and uncle of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Blakeley, Castle Rock, Washington; great-aunts and uncles of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hopkins and Mr. and Mrs. Art Williams, Portland and friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hibbs and sons, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Anderson and family, Hillsboro and Mrs. Floyd Shulke, Judy and Scott, Rockaway.

From the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Weller left for a week end honeymoon at the beach from which they returned Monday. They will make their home in Vernonia where he is employed by the Crown Zellerbach corporation. Prior to her marriage, Mrs. Weller was employed at the Sawyer plant at Beaverton.

Patty McEntire To Be Installed

Public installation of officers will be held next Monday evening by Nehalem Assembly No. 18, Order of Rainbow for Girls. The ceremony will take place in the upstairs lodge room at the Masonic temple at 8:00 o'clock.

Miss Patricia McEntire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEntire, will be installed as worthy advisor and other elective officers who were chosen at the meeting held May 11 include Peggy Bowerman, associate worthy advisor; Judy Strong, charity; Vicki Serafin, hope and Glenda Robertson, faith. Other officers who are appointed by the incoming worthy advisor have not yet been announced.

Miss Sunny DeHart, outgoing worthy advisor, will act as installing worthy advisor and will be assisted by other installing officers chosen by the new worthy advisor. For this occasion, the DeMolay chapter from St. Helens has been invited to exemplify the crowning ceremony.

Former Resident Is April Bride

In a pretty double-ring ceremony at the Walthville Presbyterian church near Springfield, April 18, Miss Patricia Wildt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Wildt, former Vernonia residents, became the bride of Harry L. Schluckebier.

She was given in marriage by her father and wore with her bouffant wedding gown a chapel-length veil held by a crown of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a white orchid surrounded by pink rosebuds on her white Rainbow Girl Bible.

Miss June Jones of Corvallis was maid of honor and Miss Gretchen Bolmeier, Salem, bridesmaid. They wore street-length dresses of pastel blue with royal blue accessories and carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations.

The couple is now at home at Leasburg where Mr. Schluckebier is employed by the U. S. Forest Service at Blue River.

The best alibi in the world is one you never have to make.
