

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Jed Cousins returned home last week end from Ashland where they had spent all of last week while Mrs. Cousins attended the Institute of Renaissance study conducted in conjunction with the Oregon Shakespearean festival by Dr. Marjorie Bailey of Stanford University. She also attended two of the Shakespearean plays.

Guest at the home of Mrs. Laura Carmichael this week is Mrs. Clark Fenton of Silver Lake, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hawkins and family vacationed last week with a trip down the coast, then crossed over to Eugene to spend a couple of days with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Simpson. While there, Mr. Hawkins also called on former Riverview residents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marston.

Harold Ashley who was in Vernonia recently while home on leave, is now stationed at Fort Hood, Texas. For friends who wish to write him, the following address may be used: Pvt. El Harold J. Ashley, US 56312397; Co. C 1st ARB 50th Inf., 2nd Armored Div., Fort Hood, Texas.

Among Vernonia people who were at the Beaver ball game in Portland Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. John Wyld.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hawkins were two of her uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kunciter of St. Helens and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Serafin, their daughter Angie from Trenholm and the latter's fiancé, Gene Fish from Portland. The Serafins also visited the John and Frank Serafin families.

Edward and Larry Garner joined Dr. M. D. Cole and Al Boles of Longview in Portland Sunday to attend the baseball double header, both of which the Beavers won. Also attending with them was Ray Hahmeyer of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. James Harris and family attended a picnic Sunday at the DeMolay park near Tillamook which was the 20th anniversary reunion for her Tillamook high school class. Almost half of the class membership was there with their families. Sharon and Jimmy Harris who had spent last week at Tillamook with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sperber, returned home with their parents Sunday evening and brought with them their cousin, David Stout, to visit here for a while.

Mrs. Lona Weidman received news last week that a former resident, Darrell Errant, had died from injuries received in an automobile accident near Albuquerque, New Mexico July 10 in which his wife had been killed instantly. One of their three sons is still being treated for injuries and the other two escaped with minor injuries. The children are with his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Errant, in Portland.

Carla and Rusty Davis of Tillamook spent last week end here with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Davis and sons Billy and Bobby of Clatskanie were here Saturday evening also for a birthday dinner for Mrs. Harold Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick May were here from Eugene last week end to visit her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tipton and other relatives.

Clarence Nance drove to Tacoma Friday to bring Mrs. Nance's mother, Mrs. E. E. Lehmann, and her brother, R. A. Hatley from American Lake veterans hospital here for a weeks visit.

Neighbors in Lone Pine Acres just south of Vernonia, gathered at the home of Charles Van Alstine Saturday evening to honor him on his 83rd birthday. Birthday cake and ice cream were served and he received gifts. Those who participated were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nightwine and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde May, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Warner and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tipton.

Cecil Wolf arrived Friday from Odessa, Texas to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Wolf. Also home during the week end were the Wolf's daughter, Mrs. Roy Dailey from Astoria and their sons, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf and Tom Jr. from Springfield. Mr. Wolf, who has not been well is up part of the time, but spends quite a bit of time in bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schaumburg were here from Portland Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schaumburg.

Mrs. Dan Cason fell Monday noon on the sidewalk near Miller's store and broke her left arm. She also received bruises in the fall.

Miss Harriet Heath who has spent most of the summer recuperating from virus pneumonia, is now on her feet and feeling good again.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Anderson of Chicago called on Mrs. W. T.

OREGON'S CENTENNIAL ALBUM

Graves Monday. Mrs. Anderson is the former Harriet Bronough who taught music in the grade school here some years ago.

Mrs. W. T. Lilly was taken by the Vernonia ambulance to Portland General hospital Tuesday morning. She has been ill at her home for some time and was taken to the hospital for additional care.

Mrs. Cassie Livingston who since January of this year has been a resident of the Kennedy Memorial Christian Home in Martinsville, Indiana was recently pictured in the Martinsville Daily Reporter as she sat at her loom weaving. An accompanying article told of her weaving and that her hobby had been encouraged at the home by the making available of an extra room in which she can work and a glass show case in which to display things she has made in one of the looms. Copies of the paper and literature telling about the home were sent recently to friends here who were pleased to know she is so pleasantly situated.

Mrs. Mathilde Bergerson drove to Tacoma Wednesday to take home her grandchildren, Sherril, Jacqui and Bobby Bergerson, who have visited here more than a week with her and their uncles and aunts, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bergerson and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Meyer and their families. She planned to spend a few days visiting her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bergerson, before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sargent and family and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hickman and Curtis went to Twin Lake out from Bend Monday of last week for a camping trip. The Hickmans returned home Sunday but the Sargents are spending this week there, too.

Mrs. Eitel Meeker was here recently from Salem and spent two weeks visiting her many Vernonia friends.

Mrs. Paul Gordon visited at Cottage Grove last week end with her father and sister and family. She brought home with her her nephew, Andy Nelson who was here until Wednesday. She then took him to Portland where he boarded the bus for Bremerton to visit another aunt.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Counts last week were his grandson, Frank Gordon and family from Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. B. Counts was surprised to have her sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Pritchard and daughters Rose Marie and Dorothy and granddaughter, Miss Jennie Thompson from Stanton, Michigan visit her Monday overnight.

Mrs. Mathilde Bergerson, accompanied by her three grandsons, Phillip, Stanley and Ronnie Meyer, and a friend, Mrs. Jean Miller of Portland, vacationed from Friday, July 30 until Wednesday of last week at Otter Rock. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Meyer joined them there on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thompson returned home Wednesday from a vacation during which they were at Todd Lake and other mountain points with other riders from clubs in Washington county. They all took their horses and enjoyed trail riding. They returned to Hillsboro Tuesday and stayed over there to see the wagon train.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Holce, Randy and Ricky and Mr. and Mrs. James Johns and Timmy vacationed from Sunday to Wednesday of last week at Ollalie lake.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Curl last Thursday for dinner at Nendels in observance of the birthdays of Mrs. Johnson and Mr. Curl.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron McDonald and Lanny and Mr. and Mrs. Orin Weed and Barbara vacationed last week at Green Lake. The McDonalds returned home Wednesday and the Weeds spent an extra two days visiting some other lakes in the area.

Carl Davis was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland Monday evening after he had become ill that afternoon while working at the home of his son Harold at Clatskanie. The trouble is thought to be a recurrence of an ulcer but he is undergoing tests to determine the treatment necessary.

Last week end, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fowler drove to Sumner, Washington where she visited with the Goodburn family while Mr. Fowler accompanied Darwin and La Verne Goodburn and a pal of the latter from their ship, the USS Bremerton, on a hiking trip in the Olympics. Mrs. Fowler also enjoyed seeing the aquaplane races.
