TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culbertson were two of his sisters, Mrs. F. Fredrickson and Mrs. W. Blaine and Mrs. A. R. Bishop and her three granddaughters, all from Sacramento, California.

Mrs. Murel Knight spent the July 4 week end at Medford with Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Culbertson and family and enjoyed swimming with them in the new pool they had just built at their home. She brought Julie and David home with her for a two weeks visit with her and the other grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culbertson.

Jim Davis is attending summer school sessions at University of Oregon, Eugene, and will be home about the middle of August.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Snyder and son, Bert, took their other son, Floyd, to Portland Monday of last week where he boarded a plane for Washington, D.C. He will work for the defense department in the electrical engineering department.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lindley of Garibaldi spent several days here last week taking care of their property on A street.

Mrs. Ann Bender and Mrs. Julia Davis drove to Fort Stevens Sunday to join the Bert Fleskes family who were camping there for a most enjoyable day at the lake. Sunday evening, Roy Larson and his mother, Mrs. Miles Larson from Walnut Creek, California, were visitors of Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Larson flew up from California that day to spend a week with her son who is working for the Crown Zellerbach corporation at Seaside. Saturday guests at the home of Mrs. Davis were Mr. and Mrs. John Hatfield of Lebanon, former Vernonia residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bush, Martha and Delbert enjoyed a ten-day vacation in California the first part of July. They spent the week end of the Fourth visiting relatives in the San Francisco area. They also visited their son, Jerry, at Fort Ord after which they went to Carmel, Yosemite National park and other points of interest. Enroute home they visited Lassen National park. News from their other son, Ricky, who is now stationed at a missile base in New Mexico, is that he has been having some enjoyable trips into Old Mexico.

Last week, Mr. and Mrs. George Koski and family vacationed with a trip of about 1000 miles through Central Oregon. Among places they visited were Klamath Falls, Crater Lake and the Peterson Rock Gardens near Bend.

FIVE YEARS AGO
From The Eagle, July 21, 1955
 The Rose Avenue garage operated by H. H. and Ralph Sturdevant was broken into Wednesday night and tools valued between $250 and $300 taken. No clues as to identity of robbers had been revealed.

Pictured was Miss Joyce Akers receiving her check from Mrs. Hollis Hartwick for $195.22 for 325 flats of berries picked at Rolling Hills farm. She was top picker in the crew of about 130 from here who picked at the farm this year. Picking started June 17.

TEN YEARS AGO
From The Eagle, July 20, 1950
 Nineteen Vernonia Boy Scouts have signed up for a week at Camp Merriweather and will leave Sunday. Jim Davies, Scoutmaster, will accompany them. All camp gear will be trucked down by Lew Choate.

The M. G. Davis home on the Beaver Creek highway cut-off south of Vernonia burned to the ground Tuesday morning. They had just moved in on Sunday.

Luther Herrin announced plans this week for building a mill on ground recently leased from Vern Boyer on the old Arcadia Park site.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
From The Eagle, July 19, 1945
 The Vernonia fire department was called twice in less than a week by a fire Saturday evening at the Roy Williams house near the old laundry and on Monday evening when fire started in a load of hay on A street.

Turkey raising is on the upgrade in this area. Max Oblack of Natal has a flock of 2500, M. B. Steers has 900, W. R. Wolf and Tom Crawford each have 100.

COLUMBIA FESTIVAL of Progress Junior Court, left to right: Beth Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Jones; Jimmy Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson Jr.; Toni Finlay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Finlay; Peter Krenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Krenz; Lori Lease, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lease; and Michael Eaton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Eaton. From these, King Rex and his queen will be selected by popular vote to reign over the Mardi Gras youth parade in St. Helens August 3 at 4:30 p.m. This will highlight Youth Day in the August 3 through 7 St. Helens festival.

sons, Billy and Jimmy, from Los Altos, California are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Nichols.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Hogberg were their grandchildren, Danny, Debby and Della Hass from Portland. The Hogbergs expect them to return this week end for the Jamboree.
