Approximately 354,000 Oregon residents have been infected with tuberculosis at some time in their lives. Of these, 450 to 500 a year will develop active tuberculosis.

BOWLING RESULTS

The Fireballs took four points from the Strikers and Pinbusters took three points from the Lanemasters. This puts the Fireballs only 2½ points behind the league leading Pinbusters, with only one more week to go. The last week should be quite interesting because these two teams play each other.

Ben Fowler had high game, 229 and high series, 629. Splits picked up: Ted Stout 3-10; Jim Peters 2-7.

Ladies Visit Natal H.E.C. Club

BIRKENFELD — Elna Baker, Ellen Wanstrom and Lora Hopkins, HEC members from Winema Grange went to the Natal Grange hall Wednesday and enjoyed a potluck dinner with HEC members from Fernhill, Beaver Homes and Natal Granges there at noon. Thursday evening, at the regular Winema Grange meeting, Edna Johnson showed colored slides of Sun Valley Park and Virginia City, Nevada and other interesting spots.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wanstrom and Hank Robinson were in Portland recently to attend the wedding at the First Methodist church of the Wanstrom's nephew, Lowell Swanson and his bride, Nadine Ellis. Mr. Swanson is superintendent of the United Finance in Portland and Nadine is assistant to the school superintendent of the school system of Portland. Stevie Downs was one of the ushers and Ione Downs was on the reception committee.

Mrs. Reed Holding, Anna Hantberg and Mrs. Jim Watson journeyed to Cannon Beach Wednesday morning to attend the Bible conference there. Pastor and Mrs. Sulo Sanders, Rosemarri and Donna Sanders, Pat Jones and Shirley Berg attended the service there that evening. Mrs. Holding and Anna remained overnight and the rest returned after the evening service. Eugenie Price, well known Christian writer and speaker, spoke at the conference that evening.

Those vacationing over the 4th in Washington were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Barlow and son Darryl who were at Nahcotta; Mr. and Mrs. Boone Johnston and family who were at Longbeach and Mr. and Mrs. Art Bellingham and sons; Mr. and Mrs. George Bellingham and children and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bellingham and family who were at Merwyn Lake near Woodland, Washington. Medford was the visiting place for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Larsen and family for the 4th week end. They went there to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bender are staying at present with his mother, Mrs. Ann Bender of Timber route, Vernonia. Mrs. Bender is the former Karen Stuve. Mr. and Mrs. Mickey Hopkins and family spent July 4 in Hillsboro. Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Baker and family and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Borders and family picnicked by the river on the Border's farm.

Seal belts can save lives.

Crawfords Visit with Scotts in Vancouver

BIRKENFELD — Mr. and Mrs. Dave Crawford and family went to Vancouver, B.C. over the 4th. Mrs. Crawford's mother, Mrs. Murdina Morrison returned with them to her home there after a six weeks stay here with her daughter and family. The Crawfords visited George and Zella Scott while in Vancouver. Just before the Crawfords were ready to leave, Mr. and Mrs. Wally DeSmet, missionaries to Patagonia, who are now in the states on furlough, arrived to spend a few days with the Scotts. Wally DeSmet and family were here in Birkenfeld this spring and spoke at the Birkenfeld Community church and also at the Mist church. The Crawfords have their niece and nephew, Nicky and Stella Hrones from Hayward, California visiting with them this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jones and daughters, Marilyn and Marjorie, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wanstrom and Hank Robinson went to Columbia park for a picnic on the 4th and also went to Jantzen Beach. In the evening they attended the races and took in the fireworks.

Mrs. Elsa Richardson had Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reister from Scappoose, as house guests at her beach home in Seaside recently. The Reisters used to live in Birkenfeld a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kyser and family spent the 4th with their daughter, Mrs. Dale Leino and child in Clatskanie.

Mrs. Fred Udey visited her daughter, Ruth Burkholder in Portland Wednesday. The Udeys spent a few days over the fourth at Seaside in their trailer house. Mrs. Udey left for Seaside Sunday and Mr. Udey joined her Monday evening. They returned Tuesday evening. They visited Lawrence Jepson in Seaside and report that he is doing fine and is looking good after his recent surgery.

Robert Berg was in Portland Wednesday. He had dinner that evening with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Haff and family. Also there was Valborg Anderson, Robert's sister-in-law, who had just arrived from New York. Valborg was unable to be here for the funeral of her father, Alfred E. Anderson of Colton, who passed away from a stroke in May. She arrived now to spend some time with the family. Her plans are to spend a few days in Birkenfeld also before returning to the East.
