SIG UNANDER, who was state treasurer for Oregon from 1952 to 1950, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination for U. S. Senator in an effort to capture the seat now held by Wayne Morse. Unander resigned as state treasurer in January of 1960 to accept an appointment by President Eisenhower to the Federal Maritime Board, where he served to the end of the term, June 30, 1961. He is a resident of Portland.

Larson Boys Attending College at Longview

IRKENFELD — Mr. and Mrs. Francis Larson, Fred Larson and sons, Terry and Dave, went over to Longview Saturday evening to see the football game between Lower Columbia Junior college and Wenatchee. Wayne Larson played some for the Lower Columbia Junior college. Wayne and his brother, Marvin, are attending college in Longview. Al Berg was also in Longview Saturday to visit Gene and Reba Larson and family.

Jepson Lonquist visited his family in Birkenfeld over the week end. He worked on some sketches of his children while here. Mr. Lonquist has been working on some portraits in oil in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Beach were in Chehalis on business Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Crouch and the former Dorothy Wallace from Astoria; the Crouch's daughter, Bernice Fink, and her daughter, Phyllis Hamlin, both from Portland visited with Mr. and Mrs. Art Bellingham Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bellingham and family spent Sunday afternoon with the Art Bellinghams. They finished painting the house this week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rodgers and girls spent Sunday evening with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Larson.

Despite coastal fog along Oregon's coastline forests become quite dry during summer months. During this hazardous period care is needed to protect the forests from fire.

The fellow who straddles the fence may live peacefully, but will never carry much weight.

Pink and Blue Shower Honors Mrs. A. Lamping

Mrs. Arthur Lamping of Beaverton was honor guest Saturday afternoon at a pink and blue shower at the home of Miss Peggy Bowerman for which she and Miss Sunny DeHart were co-hostesses.

Clever original invitations for the affair were made by Miss DeHart and drew much comment from those who received them.

Appropriate games were played during the afternoon with prizes going to Mrs. Ray Lamping and the honor guest. After the games, a basket decorated with pink and blue and guarded by storks revealed an attractive array of packages which the honor guest was permitted to open and display.

Highlight of the refreshments was the cake iced in white and decorated with pink booties which had been made for the occasion by Mrs. Emil Messing.

Guests other than those already mentioned were Mrs. M. J. Lamping Sr., Mrs. J. W. Nichols, Mrs. Cecil Johnson, Mrs. O. T. Bate-man, Mrs. Harold McEntire, Mrs. T. L. DeHart, Mrs. L. G. Bowerman and Mrs. Warren Aldrich.

Mist-Nehalem Unit Organizes for Year

Organization was the topic of the day when the Mist-Nehalem Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. Norman Hansen on September 15.

Many interesting plans for the coming extension year were discussed by the members.

The next meeting will be on treats from the freezer. Mrs. Albert Blount and Mrs. Norman Hansen, project leaders for this meeting, will be bringing members the latest information. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Watson, Birkenfeld on October 13 at 10:30 a.m. Sack lunches are to be brought.
