

Skating Party Set for Youth

A pre-rally ice skating party at the Lloyd Center Ice Pavilion will launch the Saturday night Youth for Christ program. Beginning at 5:30, the young people can get their skates and at 7:15 will move over into the Benson high school where the theme of the rally is "A Look Into the Future." Opening the rally will be the premiere showing of the full color Moody film, "The Professor and the Prophets," space age uncannily revealed in scripture.

Dr. Charles F. McKoy, who at the age of 70 resigned his pastorate in New York and left for India, will speak. Dr. McKoy, now 83, has just returned from another term where he has ministered in Japan, Hong Kong, Formosa, India and Palestine, also in Soviet Russia and Yugoslavia.

WORKING FOR A SMALL COMPANY?

Here's a tip to pass along to the boss: there's one health protection plan that can be "custom-tailored" for employee groups of four to seven people. It's O.P.S.-Blue Shield, the physician-designed plan that makes premium dollars go much farther, because realistic benefits stretch to fit actual needs. Equal medical-surgical-hospital benefits for all members of the employee's family, too, and free choice of doctor. Get all the facts now.
