TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Mrs. Blanche King returned home last Thursday from a 10-day vacation trip to Southern California which was a gift to her from her niece whom she visited. The niece wanted a visit with her but was unable to make the trip here so had her come there. Mrs. King went by bus to Grenada Hills, California to the home of Mrs. Alfred Bradt, the former Margaret Epperly who at one time lived here and attended school here. They took Mrs. King to Los Angeles and points of interest including Olvera street and China Town. On her way home she stopped at Central Valley near Mt. Shasta to visit a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Borgman. She also visited a nephew at Atwater.

Guests last week at the home of Mrs. Lois Thayer were her husband's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lawless, their son and a niece from Brewster, Washington who went from here to Seattle to attend the fair. Friday, Mrs. Thayer's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. Black from Detroit, Michigan arrived here to visit her until Monday when they also went on to the fair. Sunday, Mrs. Thayer and the Blacks went to Seaside.

Guests from Sunday to Friday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ritz were his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. David C. Lenaburg from Monrovia, California. They took home with them the Ritz twins, Deanna and Diana who will spend a month there.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Bowerman and daughter Peggy were in Nertarts Sunday to visit her mother, Mrs. Anna Wall.

Arthur Williams of Portland was here last Friday to visit his father, Harry Williams, who has recently returned home from Tuality hospital where he had surgery.

Mrs. H. O. Hanson will enter the University of Oregon medical school hospital July 6 to have cataracts removed from both eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Garner drove to Forest Grove Sunday afternoon and called on Robert Wyckoff and family after which they went on to Hillsboro to call on Mrs. Wyckoff at Tuality hospital where she is recuperating from major surgery.

Paul Cain from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minger took their daughter Diana to Eugene Sunday and from there she went on to Roseburg by bus. They crossed over to the coast to stay over until Monday before returning home. Diana had had two weeks vacation from business school and during that time had visited her parents, had gone to the Rainbow Girls grand assembly and to Seattle to attend the fair with her aunt, Mrs. Arnold Counts and family.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Verl Barker are her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Glendinning and four children from Rapid City, South Dakota who arrived Sunday. They are tentatively looking for a location here.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Charles (Sue) Eversaul last Wednesday at Estacada. Services for her were held Monday at the Barton Community Baptist church and burial was at Skyline cemetery. She is survived by her husband, Charles; daughter, Mrs. Adelyn Brandow and five grandchildren. The Eversauls formerly lived in Vernonia. Mr. Eversaul is recuperating nicely from a recent heart attack.

Al Inman, Oregonian agent for this area, had the misfortune to slip on rocks while fishing last Saturday and injure his leg in the fall to the extent that he is on crutches this week and has had to have Hank Bodenhamer assisting Mrs. Inman with the paper delivery on outlying routes.

Hannula Makes Solo Flight

Naval Aviation Cadet Brian R. Hannula, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald O. Hannula of Vernonia, on May 25, attained one of the most memorable experiences in the life of an aviator when he completed his first solo flight while attached to training squadron one at the Sautley field Naval auxiliary air station, Pensacola, Fla.

Before logging the solo flight he had received 11 flights of dual instruction and the twelfth flight was a "safe for solo" check by an instructor other than his own.

The next phase of the training includes precision flying, when he will be introduced to different acrobatic maneuvers.

Upon completion of the precision flying training, the student aviator will enter advanced training either at Pensacola or Meridian, Miss., before being awarded "Wings of Gold."

Cadet Hannula, who entered the service in October 1961, attended Pacific University, Forest Grove.

Hansens Return From Minnesota

MIST — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hansen returned home from their trip to Minnesota Sunday evening. They came home by way of Reno, Nevada, through part of California and enjoyed a trip up to Crater Lake. They had a very enjoyable trip but are happy to be home again after traveling about 5000 miles on their trip. They and their daughters visited at Lake Nordan with Mr. and Mrs. Taso. She is the former Ellen Ek and she sent greetings to everyone who knew her and her family. Her home was where the H. M. Reynolds now reside.
