

Beaver Ball Games Lucky For Family

Some families seem to live under a lucky star and the Art Gardner family seems to be one of them.

It will be recalled that last year Art was the winner of a ticket to Hawaii at a Beaver ball game. Last Thursday evening, at a game he did not attend, his grandson, Mike Beugli, aged three and a half, was the winner of a pony and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Beugli of Portland, won a $150 grocery order. Mrs. Beugli is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Gardner.

PEO Convention Reports Heard

At a called meeting June 19, Chapter BS of the PEO Sisterhood met with Mrs. W. H. Bridgers to hear state convention reports given by Mrs. Robert C. Lindsay, president, and delegate to the convention.

Mrs. Lindsay reported three new chapters chartered during the year to bring the total in the state to 116 with more than 4,000 members. Supreme organizer Ethel O. Gardner of California, was honor guest.

The purposes of PEO are educational and charitable, and the Oregon chapter has sponsored 42 loan fund girls for a total of more than $26,000. Fifteen Oregon girls are attending Cottey College and eight of these are scholarship students.

Cottey is a Junior College for girls located in Nevada, Missouri and is owned and entirely supported by PEO. A Cottey graduate with proper recommendations has an opportunity to take her third year of college in Paris at the Sorbonne, the Louvre and the Alliance Francaise.

This year at convention, $6,033 was awarded in grants and scholarships with six Oregon girls receiving scholarships to Cottey.

Through the International Peace Fund established nationally by Supreme Chapter in 1949, students from 25 countries attended 52 universities and colleges in the United States and Canada in 1961-62, and two of these were guests of the convention. The featured speaker at the educational hour was Mrs. Vimala Paulus, an International Peace Scholarship student from India, who received her doctorate from the University of Oregon this year.

Mrs. E. L. Bartholomew of Medford was installed as president of the state chapter. Lewis and Clark college campus will be the site of next year's convention, June 17, 18, 19, 1963.

Summer School Tour Is Taken

Three teachers from the Vernonia elementary schools took their summer school work this year in a different way which they found most interesting. They enrolled at Oregon College of Education, Monmouth, for a Northwest Pacific tour under the direction of Francis Haines, instructor in the social science department who also is an author.

The tour left Portland June 18 for a 12 day bus trip which covered 2400 miles, a history span of 150 years and included many points of interest overlooked by the average tourist. There were 35 teachers on the bus, in addition to the instructor and driver. Those included from Vernonia were Mrs. Noma Callister, Mrs. Gladys Worthington and Mrs. Mathilde Bergerson.

The tour touched on history, geography, geology and science. Some of the points included were the north and south branches of the Oregon Trail along which they saw graves of pioneers, sites of massacres, and other historic events; various of the completed and uncompleted dams in both Oregon and Washington; the historic Basque area of the Jordan valley; the Nez Perce Indian battle grounds and the grave of Chief Joseph; the old gold mining town of Idaho City; the unique and wonderfully attractive Chapel of the Rockies at Boise, Idaho; the Maryhill museum and Grand Coulee dam, to name a few.

At La Grande, they were entertained by a choir of Indians. In Twin Falls, Idaho the Vernonia ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. Worthington's nephew and wife.

The instructor pointed out many things of interest along the way and gave much background information to help them enjoy the trip and to make it of value to them for future use in their teaching.

They returned home Saturday of last week feeling that the time had been very well spent.

Natal Grange Honors Members

Last Saturday, June 30, about 60 people gathered at Natal Grange hall to enjoy the presentation to Alice Peterson Lindsay of her 60-year membership pin and certificate for continuous membership in Natal Grange. She became a member in 1902, joined Pomona Grange in 1903, and state and national Grange in 1906.

An interesting program was arranged by the lecturer, Mildred Tupper, including musical numbers by Pete Peshall and Alice Mills, a reading by Isabel Anderegg and a recitation by Walter Mathews. Group singing led by Gerrie Hemeon and music by Alice Mills added interest to the occasion.

Noble Dunlap, brother-in-law to Alice, presented the pin and certificate to her. Mrs. Ruth Steers gave an interesting review of Mrs. Lindsay's life.

A 25-year pin was presented to Marion Steers and a gift from the Grange was given to the newlyweds, Lawton and Chestine Waddell.

Pot luck refreshments were served. Grange members from Warren, Fern Hill, Chapman, So. Scappoose and Pacific Grange were present.

At the meeting June 27 at Natal Grange the charter was draped in memory of Clyde Henderson.

The first and second degrees were conferred on Mr. and Mrs. Dee Hershey, Mr. and Mrs. Max O'Black, Mrs. Albert Schlehuder and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Hemeon. Mr. Schlehuder was already a member having belonged to the Grange in Salmon, Idaho.

Pythian Sisters Hold Memorial

At the meeting of Vernonia Temple, Pythian Sisters held on Wednesday evening, June 27 at the IOOF hall, memorial services for Mrs. Marie Laschinger were conducted by the most excellent chief, Cleo McNair and her officers. Mrs. Laschinger was a charter member of Willamette Temple No. 45 at Independence and two years ago she had received recognition for 40 years of continuous membership there.

However, since her residence in Vernonia, she had been so active in Vernonia Temple and so faithful in her attendance that it was hard for anyone to remember that she was not a member here. Since this temple was not privileged to drape the charter for her, the memorial service was held. Nineteen members of the temple had attended the services for her at the chapel that afternoon.

During the evening, the rug project was concluded by the committee headed by Mrs. Olivia Wood who had made the braided rug. This week she delivered the rug to Mrs. Maude Wells.

Mrs. Lucille Hickman was elected grand representative to attend grand temple sessions in Portland in October. Mrs. Cora Lange was named as alternate.

The September ways and means committee, Faye Davis, Catherine Lentz and Leah Stiff, started their project by distributing Happiness Bags which had with them a verse explaining their use. Members are to drop in coins when special pleasures come their way and write on the accompanying sheet of paper why the coin was added. The bags and reports will be returned at the first fall meeting, September 12.

This was the last meeting until fall as the group recesses during July and August.

Following the meeting, refreshments of cup cakes and coffee were served by Laureta Lamping, Grayce Bundy and Jennie Stanley at tables beautifully decorated with red roses. Members whose birthdays had occurred during April, May and June found their cakes adorned with lighted candles and Happy Birthday was sung to them.

His wife, Ethel, junior past department president, visited the auxiliary meeting and gave an interesting talk concerning the recent department convention held at Newport. She stated that there are now 2,914 auxiliary members in Oregon.

Leah Stiff and Mabel Gardner, delegates from the Vernonia auxiliary also reported on the convention which was the largest one held so far in Oregon.

Art Gardner and Loren Stiff, delegates for the Barracks, also reported to that group.

The next meeting of the Barracks and auxiliary will be July 23.

She was attended by Miss Karen June Cornett as maid of honor who was attired in a navy blue suit with red accessories with corsage of white roses and stephanotis.

Archie Dass of Vernonia was the groom's best man.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the yard at the family home of the bride's parents in Newberg. The three-tiered rose-decorated cake was cut by Mrs. Irene David, aunt of the bride. Mrs. Margaret James, sister of the groom, poured coffee and Mrs. Elroy Miner, sister-in-law of the groom served punch. Miss Kathy Barker, sister of the groom, had charge of the guest book.
