TV to Offer 'What's New'

The state department of education is preparing a 90-minute in-service program to be televised on channels 7 and 10 at 1:00 p.m., PST, on Thursday, August 30, and rebroadcast at 1:00 p.m., PST, on Wednesday, September 5. The program is being developed at the suggestion of the state advisory committee on ETV and radio as a means of reaching all teachers and administrators in the viewing area of the state educational television network and as a means of spreading further the services of the department staff in the days just prior to the opening of schools.

The program theme is "What's New in '62 for Oregon Schools?". Dr. Minear will lead members of the state department of education professional staff in presenting information on such topics as the leadership role of the state department of education in Oregon education, the Oregon program, certification, curriculum trends, methods of staff utilization, new teaching tools, ways of class room organization, and possibly school buildings. Content of the program will be directed particularly to elementary and secondary teachers and administrators.
