

Engagement Is Announced Here

TIMBER ROUTE—Mr. and Mrs. Linwood P. Reynolds of Timber Rt. have announced the engagement of their niece, Cheryl Lea to Gerald Allen Andrus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrus of Vernonia. The future bride has made her home the past several years with her aunt and uncle and is a 1962 graduate of Vernonia high school. Gerald will be a senior this year at Vernonia high. The couple plans to be married early next summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Miller received word the latter part of last week that their brother-in-law, Hubert McNatt who lives in Eugene, was seriously injured in a mill accident. A heavy object fell, crushing his ankle and breaking his leg in three different places. Surgery will be necessary to repair the leg and ankle but cannot be undertaken until the swelling subsides.

Friends here have received word from Clyde Thomas and his wife Nadine saying that they have been transferred from a hospital in Germany to the Madigan general hospital in Tacoma, Washington. They arrived in the United States with their small son July 31 and moved to Tacoma August 7. Clyde writes that both he and Nadine are making very slow progress from the serious injuries they received in Spain in an auto accident that occurred the latter part of June. At present they are receiving their mail at the following address: Al-c and Mrs. Clyde I. Thomas, Rt. 1, Box 136, Lebanon, Oregon, care of Robert L. Tunnell.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Marion Siedelman last week were their daughter and family, The Dave Temples, from Olympia, Washington, and their son and daughter-in-law, the Don Siedelmans. Don has been home on leave from Ft. Sam Houston, Texas.

Reunions Draw Local People

RIVERVIEW—Mrs. E. L. Lloyd returned home Thursday from a family reunion at Tyler, Texas. She rode down with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Myrt Jenkins of Portland who also took with them Mrs. J. E. Rose and Mrs. Erlene Snell. The entire family of 12 children gathered for the occasion with Curtis Jenkins acting as host.

They actually enjoyed three reunions with different groups of relatives, one at Gunnison, Colorado; one at Dumas, Texas and the main event at Tyler.

One of the highlights of the trip was a visit to the old home of Mrs. Lloyd's great grandfather. He built the house of hewn oak, put together with wooden pegs 137 years ago and it has been maintained in its original state with furniture and pictures dating back to that time. The dining table and benches were made of punchion and they gathered around it to enjoy a melon feed. They even get their water supply from the spring used by the great grandfather.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

DEFEAT AND VICTORY

Man is not made for defeat.

—Ernest Hemingway

You are never so near to victory as when defeated in a good cause.

—Henry Ward Beecher

A wrong motive involves defeat.

—Mary Baker Eddy

He conquers twice, who upon victory overcomes himself.

—Francis Bacon

There are some defeats more triumphant than victories.

—Michel de Montaigne

In many a war it has been the vanquished, not the victor who has carried off the finest spoils.
