DICK MAGRUDER of Clatskanie was selected as the Grand Champion 4-H showman for the third consecutive year. Dick will now retain permanent possession of the rotating trophy which has been sponsored by the Columbia county fair board. Dick was selected as champion showman in both the beef and sheep divisions but chose to use his grand champion steer of the fair in the showmanship contest. Elizabeth Ellis, Clatskanie, who stood second in sheep showmanship competed with her lamb against Dick in the showmanship class with Jim Bellingham, Birkenfeld, champion swine showman and Carole Chandler, Vernonia, champion dairy showman. The judges agreed that this was a very close contest with each contestant doing a slightly better job with their own animal but selected Dick on his all around ability in handling each of the other animals.
