A fine spring and summer is about over for the many who play golf at the Vernonia Golf Club. The fall and winter season is about to begin. This is the time when it is a real pleasure to get out and enjoy the crisp morning freshness and the evening sunsets, while also engaging in one of the most enjoyable and competitive sports there is today.

I say competitive, because it is a game of exacting skill and trying moments to be able to play that little white ball down the fairway and into the cup and do it in as few, or less, strokes than your partner, adversary, friend, husband, or wife. To do this one has to keep cool, calm and collected and when a bad shot is made, forget it at once and concentrate on making the next one the way you wanted to.

To prove how competitive it is, two local golfers battled for 53 holes of golf before one gained a victory of two up and one to go. The first 18 holes (which is considered a golf match) was played match play and ended all even. The second 18 was the same and not until the 53rd hole was the match ended with the winner two up and one hole left to play. There is no popular sport which is so universally played that is as competitive as a good game of golf. You should try it sometime.

The Men's Club got away to a slow start this year, but with the fun and competitive spirit growing

Jim Mullins Visits Folks Over Week End

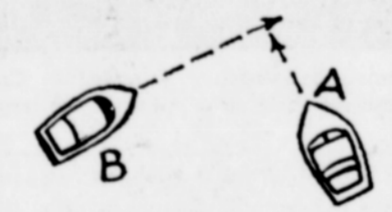

NATAL - PITTSBURG — Jim Mullins came home Sunday night and surprised his folks, Mr and Mrs Dee Veere Hershey. He has spent the summer on a fishing boat out of Ketchikan, Alaska which has now moved down to Blaine, Washington. They will fish out from there for another month.

W. R. Wolff and Sandra Tupper drove to Dallas Monday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stuve. Mrs. Wolff had already driven down from McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Young and family of Seattle accompanied by Mrs. Bernice King and family visited Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Dass this weekend. Mrs. King had spent several weeks visiting the Youngs. Mr. Dass took her to her home in St. Helens Sunday.

Nellie and Noble Dunlap paid a neighborly visit to Kit and Anita Kennedy Friday afternoon.

WHAT'S YOUR BOATING I. Q.?

BOATS "A" AND "B" ARE APPROACHING EACH OTHER AT RIGHT ANGLES INVOLVING RISK OF COLLISION. WHICH BOAT HAS THE RIGHT OF WAY?

Boat "A" has the right of way and must hold its course and speed. When two vessels are approaching each other at right angles or obliquely so as to involve risk of collision, the vessel which has the other on her own port side shall hold her course and speed; and the vessel which has the other on her own starboard side shall keep out of the way by directing her course to starboard so as to cross the stern of the other vessel or, if necessary to do so, slacken her speed or stop or reverse.

WHAT IS RECKLESS OPERATION OF A BOAT?

The Oregon State Law on Boats and Boating prohibits the operation of a boat in a reckless manner and such conduct is punishable by a fine. Speeding or water skiing in the proximity of swimmers and other boats, especially small boats, can be dangerous and may amount to reckless operation. Remember, you are responsible for the wake of your boat. Be considerate of the other fellow.

all the time, this group will be having a real time for themselves by next year at this time

This is a year-round organization, made up of men who are more or less dedicated to the game of golf, and who like the companionship of their fellow man and the challenge that a game of golf gives them.

The following is a list of officers for the first Men's club activities: Tom Bateman, president; Joey Acaturri, vice-president; Doc Hobart, tournament chairman; Wayne Thomas, assistant tournament chairman; Loel Roberts, handicap chairman; Gordon Reed, assistant handicap chairman; Ralph Bergeron, secretary-treasurer.

One of the activities which has proved, at least at the end of the competition, that it was a lot of fun was the Ladder Tournament. This was set up by the tournament chairman, Doc Hobart, and his able assistant, Wayne Thomas.

The Ladder tournament developed a lot of activity at its end of the time allotted to see who could remain at the top. Time did not permit some of the golfers to reach the top. The following is a list of participants and matches played:

*Top four at end of tournament. Each received an identical trophy.

The members are looking forward to seeing this type of tournament run again to keep their golfing ability in top shape.

One inter-club match has been played with Seaside, (which they won) the return match will be played on September 16 at Seaside. A travelling trophy has been furnished by the Seaside and Vernonia Golf Clubs for this event.

Any golfer who desires to join the men's club and play in the return match with Seaside can get in touch with the tournament chairman, Dr. Hobart or Wayne Thomas.

The ladies seemed to have a hard time getting started. Quite a few of them have been out to play many times this year, but I believe only three or four times was there a small group together on Tuesday for ladies day. Possibly household duties, lack of leadership, or maybe just not realizing the fun and possibilities in a golf match with their friends stops them from being able to have a group get together. Where are those 30 ladies who were out to take golf lessons two years ago?

Each spring we are contacted by lady golfing groups from other clubs, but to date we have had to report no activity and seemingly no interest in lady golfers to compete in a golf match.

Maybe we need to get a Ladies Pro golf match series on TV?

The course is in fine shape and ready to take on more golfers all the time. We hope to put the new number 8 green in operation about October 1.

We also expect to start some other improvements about that time, weather permitting.

We would also like to say at this time, we are going to post the golf course properties and property near by (with owner's consent) to no hunting or trespassing again this year, as we do not like the wild shooting we have had around the course with golfers enjoying their game.

The Club championships are now on, we will report on that next week. The men's club meets each Tuesday night.
