TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Larry Akers arrived home September 2 to spend part of his 30day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Akers on Timber route. He came here from Key West, Florida just after the conclusion of a three months cruise in the mid-Atlantic on the USS John R. Perry. When he leaves here September 25 he will return to Key West.

Guests last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Culbertson were his great nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Stanley and son from North Sacramento, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cota and son Chris left last Thursday for San Francisco where he was to rejoin his ship, the USS Hancock, Tuesday of this week. Mrs. Cota and Chris will remain there while he is based at Alameda, according to present plans.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis were her sister, Mrs. Leora Norman and daughter Sherrie from Portland. Other guests Sunday were Mrs. Norman's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Keen, with whom they returned to Portland, and Calvin Davis and Mike Berry of Beaver-

Mrs. Jessie Baldwin and three children: Delores, Ronald and Richard Fredrickson spent two weeks in California, returning home Sunday. They took her mother, Mrs. Bertha Swanson to her home at Bakersfield and visited Mrs. Baldwin's three married sons on their way down.

Claracy and Nancy Hartzell, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hartzell, arrived at the Vernonia Clinic at 6:00 a.m. Friday morning all set to have tonsillectomies. But, the stork that haunts this area takes the word tonsillectomy as a signal for making a landing so the girls waited while a pink bundle was safely delivered to Mrs. Ray Luna of Birkenfeld. This same routine has happened several times since the new clinic opened here.

New residents on OA hill are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Hunteman who are in the process of moving from Klamath Falls to 39 Mississippi avenue. He is a retired Southern Pacific railroad employe. They purchased the house here some time ago in anticipation of this move. They have a son who is now in Japan. They were inter-

Dr. and Mrs. Oloff L. Hansen have completed their move from Beaverton to the Eby house here which they are purchasing.

Oscar Weed spent part of the Labor Day week end in Portland at a convention for ham radio operators which was held at the Memorial Coliseum.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Murray had as guests the latter part of last week her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Christensen from Caseyville, Illinois. Other family members who joined the group Sunday were her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Betts from Vancouver and her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evans from Hillsboro.

Week end before last, Mrs. Doris Skidmore took articles for herself and several others to Salem to place them on exhibit at the state fair. Then, she and her daughter Nancy went to Seattle to attend the World's Fair. Mrs. Pauline Lee has moved from the Gilmore house on Rose avenue to the McDonald house on B street.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Holsey and family are moving this week from the house at the corner of Washington and North streets to the Hershey house on B street.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Johnson and sons Douglas and Stanley from Junction City spent several days last week visiting friends in this area as they were concluding their vacation. Prior to coming here they had attended the fair at Seattle and visited her folks at Richland, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Curl from Paris, Illinois left Portland Tuesday morning by jet after a threeweek visit here with their son, Robert Curl, and his family and with Mrs. Curl's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Brunsman. While here they enjoyed many side trips around the country, including a stay in Victoria and Vancouver, Canada and a few days in Seattle to visit the World's

Tom Wolf, who was taken to Good Samaritan hospital in Portland Monday of last week, had his left leg amputated at the knee Friday afternoon. He is now making good recuperation and hopes to be allowed to come home next

John Larimore from Winston was a visitor early this week at

Weather Favors Circle Picnic

The EUB Circle met for a pot luck picnic at the city park last August 15 and enjoyed a bright, sunny day. There were twelve members present and four guests: Mrs. Swanson, the mother of Mrs. Jessie Baldwin; Mrs. B. L. Mitchel, Rev. Raymond Targgart and George Johnson.

The group was pleased to have Mrs. George Johnson with them again after many weeks of ab-

Mrs. Sam Murray, one of the newer members, gave a most interesting devotion from a book entitled "Prayer Can Change Your Life," by Dr. Wm. R. Parker and Elaine St. Johns.

The Circle plans participation in the 75th anniversary of the Vernonia EUB church which is to be held September 16. Further information is elsewhere in this paper.

The next meeting of the Circle will be held Wednesday of next week, September 19, at 1:00 p.m.

Death Claims John A. Yeager

John Adam (Nig) Yeager, 64 one - time prominent Portland heavyweight boxer, died at Coos Bay Thursday of last week.

A native of Russia, Yeager came to Portland 50 years ago and was at one time business representative for the Sanitation Truck Drivers Union No. 220. For the past 15 years he had been in Coos Bay and was part owner of the Coos Bay Sanitation Service.

The Yeagers also own a home here at which they have spent much time in recent years and at the time of his death they were preparing to move here from Coos

Survivors include the widow, Juanita; a brother, Alex Yeager of Denver, Colo., and three nephews, Orin, Harman and Jack Yeager, all of Portland.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. last Saturday at Ross Hollywood Chapel. Vault entombment was at Rose City cemetery.

the home of his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Willard.

Mrs. Gladys Worthington, first grade teacher at the Washington school, is ill with pneumonia and Mrs. Irma Chance taught the last two days of last week and so far this week for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Gardner were pleased this week to find an item in the Oregonian announcing their daughter, Mrs. L. Beugli of 7938 SW Capitol Highway, Portland, as the winner of seven ribbons at the state fair including three firsts, one second, two thirds and one fourth place. All were on entries in the yeast division of baking in which she entered nine loaves of bread, doughnuts, coffee cake and rolls. Three prizes were in the first attempt division with her first doughnuts taking a blue ribbon, her first candied fruit sweet bread, a red ribbon and her French bread a white ribbon. She had also taken ribbons this year at the Multnomah county fair at Gresh-

4-H Forestry Club Proposed

Boys and girls aged nine and ten who are interested in belonging to a 4-H Forestry club are to have that opportunity again after a twoyear lapse, according to Clint Seibert who has again offered his services as leader.

All those interested are asked to meet next Tuesday, September 18, at 3:30 p.m. at the city park Scout cabin. Parents are invited to attend, also.

Plans for club activities include a tour every Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. unless weather prevents. Transportation home after the tour will be provided.

DOUGLAS FIR

We are now buying Douglas fir seed cones.

- 1. Be selective in cones harvested and make field tests of cones before picking. Cones meeting specifications will be purchased on basis of a measured bushel at posted prices. Inspection made at time of delivery.
- 2. Only mature, green-colored, unopened cones accepted. Brown, wormy, discolored or open cones not wanted.
- 3. Test cones by cutting lengthwise down the center of cone. Top prices paid for cones showing minimum of 5 good seeds per half-section.
- Pick from trees; gather only fresh squirrel-cut cones.
- 5. Secure permission from, and make arrangements with landowners for collecting cones on their property; do not cut limbs or trees to get cones.
- 6. Know location of your cone collection by areas, and report elevations to our buyer at time of delivery.
- 7. Do not collect in the high elevations a this time. Crop conditions best at low elevations this year under 1500'.
- 8. Low elevation cones are ready now-act now for maximum harvest. Season appears to be of short duration this year, but we will accept cones as long as they are tight and of good quality.
- 9. Bonus payment schedule available to steady pickers.
- 10. Buying restricted to scheduled hours.
