

Rainbow Girls Plan Election

September 10 the Rainbow Girls held their regular meeting which was opened in regular form by Patty Robertson, worthy advisor.

Susie Alexander, now worthy associate advisor, has chosen October 6 for her installation as worthy advisor.

Jean Roediger reported on the food sale that the Rainbow Girls held early this summer. She said that they had sold all of their baked goods.

Margie Jones reported on the trip to the beach which the girls took early in August. There were 23 girls that went.

Nancy Howard has been chosen Grand Representative to Iowa. She is to write to a Rainbow Girl in Iowa, telling her about our assembly. The girl in Iowa is then to write to us, telling us about her assembly.

At the next meeting there is to be election of officers.

Vernonia Unit To Start Year

The officers and several members from the Vernonia extension unit attended a meeting last Thursday, September 6 at Fern Hill Grange hall near Rainier at which officers for units from throughout the county were installed and plans were made with officers and committee chairmen of the units for carrying out the program outlined for this year.

Officers who were installed for the Vernonia unit were as follows: Chairman, Billie Tipton; vice-chairman, Esther Huntman; secretary, Marian Cassel and treasurer, Leona Aldrich. Others who attended the meeting were Betty Lamping and Helen Lindsay.

The Vernonia unit will have its first fall meeting Thursday of next week at the West Oregon Electric building starting at 10:00 a.m. with potluck dinner at noon. They expect as their guest, Mrs. Oregon, Mrs. Vivian Terrall of St. Helens, who also is Mrs. U. S. Savings Bond, who will talk about the Mrs. America contest, her job as Mrs. Savings Bond and her experiences. She also will demonstrate the making of pillbox hats.

All members and other interested ladies are invited to attend. Those wishing to make hats are to bring a pillbox hat frame, bits of material to match a coat, dress or suit, Elmer's glue, two feet of gold or silver rick-rack, pins and scissors.

House Roofed By Odd Fellows

Four members of the Vernonia Odd Fellows lodge went to Astoria Thursday evening of last week to attend the meeting of Beaver lodge at which Walter V. Murphey of Reedsport, Grand Master of Oregon, was making his official visit. Those who made the trip were R. L. Spencer, Carl Davis, Albert Tandy and Frank Lentz.

Past Grand Master Warren Young was one of the ten-member delegation from Clatskanie and other lodges were represented as follows: Seaside, 2; Warrenton, 6; Rainier, 4; and Beaver lodge, 14. There were two out-of-state visitors, one from California and one from Washington.

Refreshments were served after the meeting by the Astoria Rebekahs.

Among recent projects carried out by the Vernonia lodge was putting a roof on the house of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wright. The work was done last week.

Stager-Rehkopf Vows Exchanged

Marriage vows were exchanged August 17 at the Evangelical United Brethren church by Miss Helen Yolanda Rehkopf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Rehkopf of Rainier, and Albert O. Stager, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stager of Timber route, Vernonia. The date chosen was the birthday of the bride.

Chapter Calls Special Meet

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brunsmann presided at their first meeting in the 1962-63 year Wednesday night at Nehalem Chapter, OES.

Plans were made for a school of instruction to be held next regular meeting night, October 3, and for a practice and special meeting September 19. A resolution is to be presented at that time regarding changing from one to two meetings per month.

A birthday tea towel shower was given for Ginger Johns, associate matron and the presentations were made in clever original verse with a "horsey" theme.

Mr. and Mrs. John Elder from Portland were guests.

Lillian Davis, associate conductor, is in eastern Oregon giving schools of instruction. She will have approximately 75 to do this fall.

Delicious refreshments were served by Dorris West and Gladys Johnson of Timber.

Christmas Tree Convention Set

Clint Seibert, local tree farmer, announced this week that the annual fall meeting of the Northwest Christmas Tree association will be held at the Washington hotel in Portland this Friday, September 14, starting at 10:00 a.m.

In addition to routine business, the Friday meeting will include a discussion of shearing practices.

The sessions will recess at 4:45 p.m. to meet again at the hotel at 7:00 p.m. for a banquet and discussion of the Christmas tree business.

On Saturday, September 15, a Christmas tree farm field trip will be conducted in Clackamas county and will start out from the Oregon City Sears Roebuck store at 8:30 a.m. Those who participate are to take sack lunches.

The ceremony was read by the Reverend Raymond B. Targgart, pastor of the church in a setting of white gladioli and candlelight. Wedding music was played by Mrs. L. H. Thomas.

The bride was lovely in a floor-length gown of white nylon tulle and lace made with a long sleeved fitted bodice of lace with sweetheart neckline and bouffant skirt of tulle overlaid with lace at the sides. Her elbow length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls and she carried a ballerina bouquet of Patty Pink and Pink Garnet roses with white lace edging and ribbon.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Lois Redding of Portland, wore a ballerina length gown of deep pink satin taffeta and carried a bouquet similar to that of the bride.

Best man was Larry Sullivan of Portland.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Stager home on Timber route where the wedding cake highlighted the refreshments served. Gifts were op-
