Answer to last weeks quiz: Joe Grosche

A friend of ours says he doesn't want to die rich, but he is sort of wistfully hoping that his years and his money will come out even.

CASH FOR CONES DOUGLAS FIR

We are now buying Douglas fir seed cones.

1. Be selective in cones harvested and make field tests of cones before picking. Cones meeting specifications will be purchased on basis of a measured bushel at posted prices. Inspection made at time of delivery.
2. Only mature, green-colored, unopened cones accepted. Brown, wormy, discolored or open cones not wanted.
3. Test cones by cutting lengthwise down the center of cone. Top prices paid for cones showing minimum of 5 good seeds per half-section.
4. Pick from trees; gather only fresh squirrel-cut cones.
5. Secure permission from, and make arrangements with landowners for collecting cones on their property; do not cut limbs or trees to get cones.
6. Know location of your cone collection by areas, and report elevations to our buyer at time of delivery.
7. Do not collect in the high elevations a this time. Crop conditions best at low elevations this year — under 1500'.
8. Low elevation cones are ready now—act now for maximum harvest. Season appears to be of short duration this year, but we will accept cones as long as they are tight and of good quality.
9. Bonus payment schedule available to steady pickers.
10. Buying restricted to scheduled hours.
