

Secret Pals Highlight At Study Club Meeting

Members of Vernonia Study club are reminded that gifts for secret pals are to be brought to this first fall meeting which will be held tonight, September 20, at the home of Mrs. Florence Messing. Mrs. Louis Towne will present the program.

Afghan Sweeps State Division

The hairpin lace afghan of Mrs. Laura Carmichael which took sweepstakes honors in its division at the Columbia county fair, repeated the honor at the state fair in the "over 70" division in which it was entered.

First place winners are the only ones reported to the newspapers by the fair and the following are ones concerning reports which have been received since a previous list was given.

Mrs. Stanley Chandler of Keassey route took first in the Brown Swiss dairy cattle class for her three-year-old cow and for cow with best udder. The J. C. Morans took first for junior bull calves in the Shorthorns and also had reserve senior champion female and first for junior get of sire.

Former Vernonia residents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Buckley, who now reside at Gervais, took championships for junior and senior Percheron geldings and also took four blue ribbons on horses entered.

Pythians Date November Sale

Vernonia Temple Pythian Sisters opened the fall season last Wednesday evening with an interesting meeting presided over by Mrs. Cleo McNair, most excellent chief.

Many Happiness Bags were turned in, accompanied by clever statements, some in verse about the happy occasions on which coins were dropped into the bags for use in the work of the order. Members who live elsewhere accompanied theirs with letters of greeting to local members. Those who did not bring or send their bags to this meeting are asked to bring them to the next one, September 26. The committee in charge of this project was Faye Davis, Leah Stiff and Catherine Lentz.

The first week end in November, November 1, 2 and 3, was set as the time for the annual rummage sale. Alice Weed, chairman of the committee, asks that members begin turning rummage in to her now so that it can be readied and priced ahead of time.

Following the meeting, a social hour was greatly enjoyed since members had not been together since June. It was especially nice to have Katie Wyckoff here from Forest Grove. Refreshments were served by Marie Shafer, Cora Lange and Mathilde Bergerson.

The next meeting, September 26, will be the time for honoring those whose birthdays occur in July, August and September.

Delta Kappa Gamma To Meet Here Saturday

Mrs. Dorothy Sandon will be hostess Saturday for the Delta Kappa Gamma sorority and expects members from throughout Clatsop and Columbia counties to attend. There will be a luncheon at the Washington school cafeteria, served by the PTA after which the group will go to the Sandon home for its meeting.

Timber Rt Unit Launches Year

Seventeen ladies met Tuesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. R. J. Ekhoft in the Kist district to start off the year for the Timber Route Extension Unit.

The previous week, several members of the unit had attended a county-wide meeting at Fern Hill Grange hall near Rainier at which officers for all units in the county were installed. Those installed for the Timber route unit were Mrs. Velora Sheppard, chairman and Mrs. Virginia Bergerson, secretary-treasurer. Ms. Vera Miller, vice-chairman, was unable to be present that day.

Mrs. Sheppard named committee chairmen at the meeting held last Tuesday as follows: Associated country women of the world, Mrs. Laurel Jensen; home and safety, Mrs. Alice Weed; civil defense, Mrs. Muriel Arndt; program planning, Mrs. Louise Smejkal and Mrs. Weed.

At the Rainier meeting, year books had been distributed which outlined the program for this year. For October, the subject is vegetable cookery and the lesson on this will be demonstrated by Mrs. Beatrice Crawford and Mrs. Caroline Cook at the next meeting of the unit which will be held October 9 at the Vernonia Grange hall.

The program for the entire year is one of great worth to all homemakers and includes cookery, care of home furnishings, home lighting information and child guidance instruction. The entire program is one of adult education especially geared to the homemaker and provides a constant source of information for use in meeting the problems of everyday living.

The Tuesday meeting concluded with the serving of refreshments. Other ladies in the area interested in being a part of the extension program and sharing in the worthwhile projects are invited to come to the October 9 meeting.

Seaside Takes Golf Trophy

A group of 17 golfers representing the Vernonia Men's Golf Association, were at Seaside Saturday for a match which they lost 39 to 12, thus leaving in Seaside the revolving trophy which was at stake. However, the beautiful day made play pleasant and all of the men enjoyed the tournament.

Those who went to Seaside were O. T. Bateman, Loel Roberts, Bill Nelson, Dave Knowlton, Wayne Thomas, Harvey Redmond, Horace Hertel, Ralph Bergerson, Moon Mullins, Bill Horn, Dr. T. M. Hobart, Joe Magoff, Homer Fuller, Richard Fletcher, Dan Fletcher Tracy Hanson and Jack Anderson.

There was less juvenile delinquency when Pop used the woodshed as an administration building.

Class of 1952 Holds Reunion

Twenty members of the Vernonia high school class of 1952, along with their families, held the ten-year reunion of the class Sunday at Anderson park. This was considered an excellent representation since there were only 34 in the class.

Those members who attended and family members with them were as follows: Jim Szofof, wife and daughter; Margaret Michener Bartlett, husband, son and daughter; Beverly Closser Stuve and two daughters; Gordon Crowston, wife and two sons, all from the Beaverton area; Mary Tapp McDonald, Lakeview; Martin J. (Buddy) Tapp, Spokane; Derald Borders, wife and two daughters, Jim Smejkal and Leona Hoehner Smejkal and their son and daughter, Eugene; Robert Allen, his wife and son, Tacoma; Norma Elliott Adams and two sons, Carlton; Darlene Aspinall Godard, husband, son and daughter, Vancouver; Laura Steers Peterson, two sons and two daughters and Alice Davis Fleskes, husband and son and daughter, Forest Grove; M. C. Brewer, wife, two sons and daughter; Larry Garner, Doris Hahmeyer Garner and their daughter and two sons; Deloris Thompson Webb, husband, daughter and son; Janet Siedelman Fields and son, all from Vernonia and Tom Peters from Florence.

One teacher, Ray Mills, and Mrs. Mills from Cornelius joined the group and Robert L. Spencer, custodian at the high school when these folks were students, and Mrs. Spencer also joined them for part of the day.

Letters were received from Velma Snyder Harders who is living in Washington, Larry Brown who is in Seattle and Loren Mills who is in California. A letter was also received from Mrs. Dick McNair from Amboy, Washington. She had been office girl at the high school while this class was attending.

Some interesting sidelights are that Laura Steers Peterson has the largest family-four, and the youngest child at the picnic was the not quite five-months old baby of Larry and Doris Garner. Had John Meiers, another member of the class, attended with their new baby, they could have beat that record by two days.

Two members of the class have not married, Darlene Morgan and Martin Tapp. Only one member is deceased, Charlotte Davis who passed away last year.

Several did not bring family members with them to the picnic due to various circumstances.
