

MR. AND MRS. MERRITT TUTTLE (Peggy Bowerman)

Autumn Shades Set Scene for Tuttle-Bowerman Wedding Rites

Autumn shades in flowers and decor set the scene for the pretty fall wedding of Miss Peggy Joan Bowerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Bowerman, and Merritt Eugene Tuttle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Tuttle at the First Christian church here Sunday, September 16.

White tapers in wrought iron candelabra and baskets of orange and yellow gladioli accented with large yellow chrysanthemums formed the background for the impressive double ring ceremony which was read by Rev. Bruce Roberts, pastor of the church, at 3 p.m. Pews along the aisle down which the bride approached the altar were marked with white satin bows and talisman roses and ivy.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length dress of white Peau de Laine trimmed with lace appliques fashioned with fitted bodice with scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves and a bouffant skirt with lace peacock back for accent. Her short pure silk blush veil fell from a crown of Chantilly-type lace trimmed with miniature seed pearls and iridescent sequins. She carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Carol Bodenhamer and bridesmaids were Miss Sherry Blanchfield of Sacramento, California and Miss Becky Redding of Newberg. All three wore spice colored satin sheaths with matching overskirts and halo hats of beige velvet with mesh veils. Their bouquets were of Talisman roses.

Best man was Douglas Bellingham and ushers were Grant Bowerman, brother of the bride, and Steven Bateman.

Wedding music was played on the organ by Mrs. Frank Serafin who also accompanied the soloist, John Jensen who sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "Never Walk Alone" and "Wedding Prayer."

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church reception room which was decorated with yellow and white gladioli, yellow streamers and white bells.

The beautiful yellow and white three-tiered wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. George Noyer of Portland, aunt of the bride, assisted by Miss Sunny DeHart. Another aunt of the bride, Mrs. G. L. Hieber of Netarts, poured coffee and punch was served by Mrs. H. Johnson of Cook, Washington, aunt of the groom. Mrs. Arthur Lamping of Beaverton was in charge of the guest book and Miss DeHart cared for the gifts.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bowerman was attired in a beige lace with rose colored underlining with rose accessories and a pink rosebud corsage. Mrs. Tuttle wore a gown of brown lace over beige satin with beige accessories and pink rosebud corsage.

The bride's only living grandmother, Mrs. Annie Wall from Netarts, was dressed in beige crepe and lace with a flowered hat in autumn shades. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

From the reception, the couple left for Seaside for a brief honeymoon. For travel the bride wore a beige wool dress with full skirt of blended plaids with bone accessories and a white rosebud corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Tuttle are now at home at 318 South 10th, Corvallis, where both are attending Oregon State University. He is a senior and plans to complete his work by Christmas while she is a junior. His previous schooling was at Milwaukie high school and she is a graduate of Vernonia high school.

Wee Baby Girl Arrives Early

September 13 was the date chosen by little Miss Jennifer Lynn Jackson to make an early morning arrival in this world about six weeks ahead of the date scheduled for the event. She weighed in at Tuality hospital at a mere 4 pounds 3 1/2 ounces and was placed in an incubator. When her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Jackson, visited her last Saturday she had gained strength sufficient to be out of the incubator but will remain in the hospital until she starts gaining weight steadily. The Jacksons came to Vernonia in August from Moorhead, Minnesota and he is the new commercial teacher at Vernonia high school. The babe has two sets of grandparents in Minnesota: Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lindstrom at Moorhead and Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Jackson at Starbuck.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jones of Camas, Washington that a son weighing 6 pounds 14 ounces and named Kevin Dwayne joined their family Monday, September 17. The new arrival has two sisters. Mr. and Mrs. Jones formerly lived here when he was clerk at the Safeway store. He is now assistant manager at Camas in the store managed by Jim Harris, former manager here. Mr. Jones recently was featured in another news item due to being overcome with smoke while fighting fire. While here he was a member of the Vernonia fire department, also.

Another boy who made his debut that same day, September 17, was Daniel Bruce Anderson, the fifth son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth (Mike) Anderson of Rainier. The young man weighed in at 8 pounds 9 1/2 ounces at a Longview hospital. In addition to the four brothers, he is welcomed by four sisters.

Local Girl In Honors Program

Miss Victoria Lynn Pitkanen who graduated at Vernonia high school last May, is a freshman this fall at Willamette University, Salem, and is one of 17 freshmen who have been invited into Willamette's Honors Program. Eleven girls and six boys are included in the group.

The Honors Program, started at Willamette in 1958 for juniors only and extended to freshmen in 1960, has as its purpose "to provide selected superior students with the opportunity to seek knowledge freely and responsibility through careful reading of books in many fields, through independent writing of conclusions reached and through discussions with other Honors members and counselling with faculty leaders of the program."

Qualified students may enter the program at the beginning of each semester up to and including the beginning of the junior year and must have a 3.0 grade average or better to apply and to remain in the program.

Miss Pitkanen is enrolled as an English major.

In the course of getting a physical checkup at the doctor's office, a man was asked to extend his arm in front of him. Upon doing this the doctor observed a very severe shaking of the man's hands. The doctor asked, "You drink a lot, don't you?"

"Nope," replied the man, "spill most of it."

Easy money never changes man — it merely unmasks him.

Barracks Meet Draws Visitors

Members of the Vernonia World War I Barracks and auxiliary met Monday evening at the IOOF hall for the usual potluck dinner preceding their separate meetings.

There were 19 Barracks members present with the following as visitors: Herbert Calfee, past district commander; Edward Johnson, district 1 commander; John Miller and E. S. (Happy) Thompson, members of Barracks No. 1287, Portland; Robert Gallentine, district vice-commander and John Hausley, from Barracks No. 2000, St. Johns; Joe Hensley, national inspector and Bud Barnes, senior vice-commander from Barracks 53, Portland.

Happy Thompson presented to the Barracks an oil painting of 1918 vintage of the Columbia river highway. When they tire of it on their wall, they are to place it in the Columbia county museum.

At the auxiliary meeting Marie Vance, district 1 president, made her official visit. Other guests were Bernetta Johnson, Marie Calfee and Hazel Thompson from Auxiliary 1289, Portland; and Mrs. Skelton from auxiliary No. 2000, St. Johns. There were 12 local members present.

In the business session, the resignation of Otilia Heckenliab as conductress was received and regretfully accepted. Due to circumstances which make it necessary for them to move soon to Salem, she felt she could not complete her term.
