

Future Teachers Name New Officers for Year

The members of the Future Teachers of America held their first meeting of the year October 3 at the high school. The officers for this year are: President, Marian Mathews; vice-president, Jim Bellingham; secretary, Christine King and treasurer, Nancy Howard.

Mrs. Joey Acaiturri is advisor for this club which now has 26 members.

Vegetable Use On Unit Agenda

Mrs. Esther Huntman and Mrs. Helen Lindsay will present a lesson on new methods of vegetable cookery next Thursday, October 18 at the meeting of the Vernonia Extension Unit at the West Oregon Electric building. These are the project leaders who have attended training meetings to prepare for the unit presentation.

The meetings will start at 11:00 a.m. and the dishes prepared by the project leaders will be served with salads and desserts which those who attend are asked to bring.

Also, each person who attends is asked to bring needle, thread, pins and scraps of cotton material, one of which should be at least 20 by 14 inches in size.

The extension program is open to anyone interested in this form of adult education adapted to the special needs of the homemaker.

IT'S YOUR LAW

Respect For Law Makes Democracy Live

RIGHT OF WITNESSES

By far the most vital people in our system of justice are witnesses. Everyone else in a trial exists to hear what they have to say.

Our courts need witnesses. A jury to find the facts. The judge to apply the law. The lawyer to tell his client's story.

Chances are you worry about stepping up, taking an oath, and telling your story in court.

On some rare occasions you could be called upon to testify about something affecting your own standing in the community.

As a witness you too may have the right, for example, not to testify against yourself in somebody else's lawsuit or crime trial.

If you are ever in such a bind, consult a lawyer of your own choice on what to do. The lawyer who called you to testify has a sworn duty to protect his client, not you. But your lawyer is sworn to keep what you tell him secret and to advise you in your own interests within the law.

Wise lawyers tell their witnesses to obey twelve rules:

1. Go to the place (say, the scene of an accident). Check your memory before you go to court. People forget and get caught up on details. But if

Note: Oregon lawyers offer this column so you may know about our laws. It is to inform, not advise.

you check what you saw and heard you are on solid ground.

2. Visit a court. Hear how other witnesses testify. It will help you see your role on the witness stand.

3. Wear clean, conservative clothes.

4. Don't memorize your story word for word. That is the surest way to sound bad. But think of what you saw and heard.

5. Listen to the questions you are asked with care and answer thoughtfully.

6. Give a simple, direct answer in your own words. Don't be rushed.

7. If you err—and people often do—correct yourself at once. If you can't remember some detail, say so. Don't bluff.

8. Tell the truth. Don't figure which side you may help. Don't identify yourself with either side.

9. Stop when the judge breaks in, and don't try to sneak an answer in before he can stop you. What you might say could end in a "mistrial."

10. Keep cool and don't sass back.

11. If they ask you: Certainly, you have talked to other people—the lawyer, for example; and yes, you may get the lawful witness fee to make up in part for the time lost from your job.

12. Remember, without witnesses our law would fail to do justice. If you are called, be a good witness.

Fowler-Cole Vows Read

Marriage vows were exchanged Friday, September 28, in the Fireside Room of the community church in Longview, Washington by Laurel Cole and F. Allen Fowler. The ceremony was performed by Dr. Robert Warren, pastor of the church.

For her wedding, the bride was attired in a blue sheath dress and matching hat and gold accessories and carried a nosegay of pink painted daisies centered with an orchid. She had as her attendant, Mrs. Leo Thackery who wore a gold sheath dress and matching hat and white carnation corsage. Herbert Bender was the best man.

Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wyckoff of Forest Grove, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Thackery and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bender, Vernonia; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Roediger, St. Helens and Mr. and Mrs. Don Campbell, Skamokawa, Washington.

Following the ceremony, the guests were entertained at an informal reception at the home of the newlyweds at Rainier.

Mr. Fowler, who received his masters degree at Oregon State University last spring, is the vocational agriculture teacher at Rainier high school this year.

Girls to Talk At Legion Meet

This Friday's meeting of the American Legion and auxiliary will begin at 7 p.m. October 12 instead of the usual time so that members can attend the ball game later that evening.

The program will include talks by Patty Robertson and Marian Mathews, delegates to Girls' State, who will report on their attendance.

The Legion and auxiliary will enjoy a potluck October 26 and as Armistice day falls on Sunday, that celebration will take place November 9, the regular meeting date. Members of the auxiliary are asked to bring gifts of towels, pillow cases, stationery, etc., or a cash donation at the November 9 meeting for the Christmas cheer for Veterans.

There will be no pot luck dinner on November 23 because of Thanksgiving.

The past presidents' meeting was held October 5 at the home of Mrs. L. E. Stiff with 11 members present.

I am Bob Welwood, your present County Clerk. I am 58 years of age. My family consists of my wife Naomi and my son Michael, who is a Lieutenant in the U.S. Army Engineers. For 11 years before becoming your County Clerk I successfully operated a finance business in St. Helens. For 10 years prior to that I owned and managed a lumber yard and hardware store in Medford and a saw mill at Manzanita. I feel this successful business experience with my college training amply qualifies me to perform the important functions and duties of the Clerk's office. I have never failed in business and believe in hard work—something this office needs a lot of. Your vote will be appreciated.
