TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Clarence Lindsay of Redmond who was attending a principals' convention at Salem came on here after the storm to see how his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. Lindsay of Pittsburg, had fared. Mrs. Janet Bridgers, Mrs. A. D. Lolley and Mrs. Grace Currie called on the Lindsays Saturday and Monday, guests at the Lindsay home included Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lindsay of Scappoose and Mr. and Mrs. William Wood of Clatskanie.

Mrs. Dave Marshall returned home October 5 from Seattle where she had spent several weeks with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marshall. She had observed her birthday while there.

Another recent Seattle visitor was Mrs. Walter Linn who spent part of the first week in October there with friends and attended the fair.

Mrs. Ben Brickel returned home Tuesday after another week at Good Samaritan for treatment of further complications following eye surgery. She will have to be very quiet for several weeks during recuperation.

Mr. and Mrs. Edison Aldrich and daughter, Valerie Gail, spent a few days in Roseburg with Mr. and Mrs. Walt Vebres. They went on to Medford to visit Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Jones and Virgil Jones and family. They returned home last Thursday so were here for the storm.

Mrs. Marie Frazee is in St. Vincent's hospital recuperating from surgery on her back which was performed Tuesday of last week. The surgery was the result of injuries received in a fall three months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Davis drove to Clatskanie Sunday to check on their son Harold and family and to Beaverton to see their son Calvin and family and find out what damage they had suffered in the storm. Fortunately, neither family had suffered any major damage other than debris from trees to clear away. At Clatskanie, Harold was fortunate to have a gas-powered grinder for his mink feed which all other mink raisers in the area were also using. They were camp cooking in the back yard, like many people here and elsewhere.

Mrs. Bob Cone and Mrs. Bill Ritz and girls were shopping in Hillsboro when the storm hit Friday evening. They stayed in the store for some time, then tried to get home. At Forest Grove, an effort was made to persuade them to stay over there but they made it on home safely about 11:00 p.m.

Mrs. Paul Gordon returned home Sunday from Reno where she had spent last week attending the Grand Chapter of Nevada, OES. She went to Reno with a group from Portland.

Ed Miller was at Goble Friday evening when the storm hit. He came up the river to the moorage at Sauvies Island where his boat is docked at the present time. During the storm, he helped with the securing of several house boats. His boat suffered only minor damage. He made his way home over Cornelius Pass and Sunset highway.

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Miner moved to Vernonia last week end after a tree had crashed through their house at Reedville during the Friday night storm.

Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Hanson returned home Wednesday of last week from a visit with friends in the southern part of the state. They went to Phoenix October 5, then on to Rogue River to visit the Wm. F. MacDonalds, former Vernonia residents. After spending several days there, they went on into the Siskiyou mountains, then to Eddyville to visit other friends before coming home.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis John of Portland were here Saturday to see her folks, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brown. They had escaped any major storm damage and were glad to find that the Browns had come through well, also.

Mrs. Cecil Johnson of Tillamook was here Monday and reported that they had come through the storm okay. She reported that some dairy barns in the Tillamook area had gone down on cattle, causing heavy losses to farmers.

Greg Kamholz and Bill Shaw, both students at Lewis and Clark college in Portland, were here Sunday to visit Greg's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Kamholz. The college was without lights and the boys were delighted to find facilities working here. They enjoyed the opportunity to use electric razors, have hot water for baths and hot food.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linn were at Lone, Oregon Wednesday for funeral services for his father, Peter J. Linn, aged 92, who had passed away at a Troutdale nursing home. Other survivors include a daughter at Troutdale with whom he previously made his home and two sons, Clarence and Carl.

NEW VEGETABLE COOKERY TRIED

The Timber Route Extension Unit met October 9 at the Vernonia Grange hall at 10:30 a.m. The lesson on Vegetable Cookery was presented by Mrs. Mike Cook and Mrs. Melvin Bergerson. The hostesses were Mrs. Betty Smith and Mrs. Betty Fuquay. There were 14 members present.

A very interesting lesson showed how to cook common vegetables in different ways. The members participated in doing the cooking and everyone tasted the vegetables at the delicious pot luck lunch.

Mrs. Laurel Jensen, ACWW chairman, gave an interesting report on the Lady Aberdeen scholarship and it was also decided that the unit would study Oregon as an extra project in extension this year.

A friendship quilt has been started for Mrs. Melvin Bergerson and several blocks were presented to her at this meeting. This is being done in appreciation for the knitting classes she held last winter for the members.

The Wool or Wool-like garment workshop meetings will be held at Barbara Bergerson's residence after the first one which was Thursday, October 11 at the Vernonia Grange hall.

ALTHOUGH trees didn't do excessive damage to homes in area, tree that stood across highway from bridge leading into Ryan Mink Farm fell and completely wrecked span. Bridge was of steel structure and had been moved from Highway 47 at Pittsburg when new bridge was built there a year or so ago.

Grange Sugar Contest Dated

The annual White Satin Sugar-State Grange canning contest will be held in the Clatskanie Grange hall next Monday, October 22. There will be a potluck luncheon at noon, followed by the judging. This is open to all Grange members.

At a recent judging of needle-work held at the Winema Grange hall at Birkenfeld, the following were first place winners: Crocheted doily, Anna Mauris and gloves, Martha Wilburn, both of Fern Hill Grange; knitted three-piece baby set, Margaret Von Allmon, Beaver Homes Grange; sweater, Mary Bellingham, Birkenfeld; afghan, Laura Carmichael, Natal.

Pomona Grange will meet November 3 at Chapman and all Grangers are welcome.

A large delegation of Columbia county Grangers visited with Cow-litz county Pomona Grange in the Rose Valley Grange hall the evening of Saturday, October 6, and enjoyed the hospitality of the Grange brothers and sisters across the Columbia river. Seven Columbia county Granges were represented. J. Lars Nelson, Washington State Grange Master, was featured speaker of the evening and told of some of the problems of that state. Over 200 Grangers were present.

Mrs. Buckner Visits With Relatives In The Mid-West

RIVERVIEW—Miss Artie Buckner returned Saturday after a month's visit in the mid-west. She made the trip by plane to and from the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Buckner at Calhan, Colorado. They drove to visit many of her friends and relatives. She visited her great grandson and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Morse and two sons of Conway, Arkansas. This was the first time she had seen her two great great grandsons. She visited her sister, Mrs. Maggie Williams at Joplin, Missouri and her brother, Onnie Wilhite at St. Louis.

Repair Permits Out

The County Court has ordered that building permits will not be required for the repair of damage done by the storm of Friday, October 12, 1962, according to Judge John W. Whipple. For any other building, permits will be required in accordance with the building code, he stated.
