Mrs. Howard Johnson made several trips to Portland during the past two weeks to see her father, V. Lalli and brother, Lee Lalli, both of whom were in Portland hospitals for surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wood of Mist route arrived home Monday evening from Fresno, California where they had gone early in the month for a visit with her son, Leonard Dauderman and his family, including the small son who had arrived in May and which the Woods had not seen previously. They also visited friends in Sacramento and enroute home spent two days at Chico with Mrs. Mary Lanphear who formerly lived here.

Mrs. Pearle Adams returned home Friday, October 12, just in time for the storm, which fortunately did no serious damage at her home. She is some better but still not too well. Mrs. Ruth Hartman is staying with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Eggert, former Vernonia residents who now live at Cornelius, send news that they are now grandparents. A son, Galen Ray, weighing 7 pounds, 10 ounces, arrived October 8 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Eggert who also reside at Cornelius.

Mrs. Emil Minger is at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minger, recuperating from a fall she had October 12 during the storm at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ed Feldt, at Cornelius. She heard the sound of things being blown about and opened a door to see what it was when a gust of wind caught the door with such force as to cause her to fall.
