

EUB Pastor to Observe Date

Rev. Raymond B. Targgart, pastor of the Evangelical United Brethren church will celebrate 45 years in the ministry next Sunday at the 11:00 a.m. service, he announced early this week. He stated that just 45 years ago he was assigned his first class to teach and he had been in continuous Christian service since that time. In addition to serving as pastor of churches, he was engaged for a number of years in the work of the American Sunday School Union which especially helped the work of schools in rural areas.

A feature of the service will be music by two of his daughters, Mrs. Esther Sink and Mrs. Pat Hoffman. Also, the songs to be used in the service will be ones written by Rev. Targgart.

Those who attend the church regularly are aware that he has talent as a poet, and also that he finds one of his poems in the bulletin almost every Sunday, written especially for the occasion.

Targgart also announced that next Tuesday, Rev. Freddie Lindblad will be here for a special service which will follow the cantata practice.

Wednesday evening of next week, November 7, the council of administration will meet at 8:00 p.m. following the regular midweek prayer and Bible study service which starts at 7:00 p.m.

Wednesday afternoon at 1:00 p.m. the Women's Society of World Service will meet at the home of Mrs. Dan Cason and Mrs. Harry Junken will be in charge of the devotional program.

Mrs. Reynolds Home To Complete Recovery

TIMBER ROUTE—Mrs. L. P. Reynolds is home from the University of Oregon Medical school hospital recuperating from surgery and is feeling quite well although confined to a wheel chair or crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stanley went to Salem and Woodburn Wednesday and visited friends. Sunday their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Polzel were here from Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Falconer and Mrs. Nellie Thacker visited their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stowell at Buxton Wednesday afternoon. The power was just on again there Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thacker and Kenney from Forest Grove called on Mr. and Mrs. George Smith Saturday. Mrs. Thacker is recuperating from recent surgery. They also visited at the Wilbur Thacker and Nell Thacker homes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Reynolds of Portland were visiting relatives here Sunday.

Baptists Call New Minister

The First Baptist church announced this week that a new minister had been called to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Rev. A. K. Pevoto who went to Gold Beach. The new man is Rev. E. T. Wilcox of Forest Grove, a young minister for whom this will be a first assignment. He has been supplying here for several Sundays since the departure of the Pevotos.

Rev. Wilcox also is an accomplished musician and vocalist who can add much to the services of the church in that respect. He and his wife and two pre-school children will move here as soon as their affairs in Forest Grove are settled and they find a location here.

Grange Contests Judging Given

Judging of the Grange-White Satin Sugar canning contest was held Monday, October 22, in Clatskanie Grange hall. The following were winners:

Canned fruit: Margaret Von Allmen of Beaver Homes Grange, first; Anita Hamlick of Fern Hill Grange, second; Pearl Becker of Warren Grange, third.

Jelly: Irene Larson of Warren Grange, first; Pearl Becker of Warren Grange, second; Anna Eskola of Marshland Grange, third.

Men's Jelly: John Becker of Warren Grange, first.

The first prize winners will be judged in Portland against other county winners on November 1. Very nice prizes will be given by the White Satin company.

Results of judging at the state level in needlework and baking were as follows: Mrs. Anna Mauris of Fern Hill placed first on her crocheted doily which will next be judged at the national contest in New York. Mrs. Margaret Von Allmen of Beaver Homes has received second place on her knitted baby set. Laura Carmichael of Natal has placed second on her crocheted afghan and Martha Wilburn of Fern Hill has placed third with her gloves. Adelle Parmer of Beaver Homes, who placed first in this district with her ginger cookies in the baking contest, has placed second at the state level.

Columbia County Pomona Grange will meet on Saturday, November 3, in the Chapman Grange hall. The session begins at 11 a.m. and all Grangers are welcome.

Benefits Given In New Booklet

Workmen's Compensation benefits available to workers injured by accidents arising out of and in the course of their employment are detailed in a revised, updated, illustrated booklet available for public distribution by the State Industrial Accident Commission, George I. Hessevick, general manager, announced this week.

The booklet, titled "How to make a Claim—Your Benefits Under the Law," provides instructions to workers regarding their rights to benefits following injury as provided under the Workmen's Compensation Law of Oregon.

Many new workers have been added to those already protected under the law and every worker should know how to make a claim and the benefits he will receive under the law.

To facilitate distribution, individual and group requests for the booklet, by mail or telephone, will be acknowledged through SIAC regional offices at Portland, Salem, Eugene, Medford, Pendleton and Bend.

Lawrence Meissner

believes all housewives and most dealers want: "a pound" to weigh a pound, or the true weight in big letters; no empty space in packages; readable size type in list of ingredients or in telling what warranty does not cover.

Allow one free deer tag to every adult for a deer killed near his home. Deer eat your crops and shrubbery. You eat the deer.

"Lawrence Meissner has the time, energy and ability to study proposed laws." Voter's Pamphlet. Vote 111 X.
