

MRS. Wilbur Davis (Lillian), standing at left, receives gift and flowers from Nehalem Chapter, OES, at the close of a clever, original addendum Saturday night at the reception which honored her as associate grand conductress. In the center, behind the podium is Mrs. Albert Brunzman and at right, Albert Brunzman, worthy matron and patron of Nehalem chapter, who presided over the event and made the gift presentation.

Large Crowd Assembles to Honor OES Grand Chapter Officer Saturday

Around 400 guests were present to honor Lillian Davis, associate grand conductress of the Grand Chapter, Order of Eastern Star of Oregon, Saturday evening when Nehalem Chapter was host at a reception for their honored member. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Brunzman, worthy patron and matron of Nehalem Chapter, presided.

Special guests present were: Florence Jaeger, Condon, worthy grand matron; Eldon Cone, Salem, worthy grand patron; David Odell Bennett, St. Helens, general grand chapter committeeman and past grand patron of Oregon; Virginia Wright, Myrtle Creek, associate grand matron; Kenneth Blair, Tigard, associate grand patron; Mary E. Miller, Portland, grand secretary; Mary Lou Denham, Portland, grand treasurer; Merle LaMar, Silverton, grand conductress; Bertha Tibbetts, Portland, grand chaplain; Elsie Ottioli, Portland, grand lecturer and past grand patron; Jean Reed, Mikkalo, grand marshal; Loren Edmiston, Eugene, grand organist; Frances Kalina, Malin, grand Adah; Lola Cone, Salem, grand Ruth; Jean Collins, Junction City, grand Esther; Eula Mastropolita, Langlois, grand Martha; Elsie Cutsforth, Canby, grand Electa; Vina Ross, LaGrand, grand warder; Claude Sanders, Winchester Bay, grand sentinel;

Past grand matrons Elsie Ollioli, Irene McKinley, Portland; Hazel Graham, Tillamook; Bertha Burton Mains, Independence; Mattie Hermann, Seaside and Edna Throne, St. Helens; and past grand patrons, M. Edwin Cox, Portland; Ronald L. Gilson, Lebanon; Maldwin Evans, Forest Grove.

A group of grand committee members were introduced by Paul Sorenson of Pendleton and grand representatives were presented by Mabel Goodwin of Portland.

Mrs. Davis introduced her husband Wilbur and her daughter, Mrs. Sam Howard and two children from Seattle.

A large delegation of matrons and patrons from all over the state were greeted, as were all guests.

Ronald O. Gilson, past grand patron, gave the invocation and led the Mizpah benediction.

John Jensen entertained with two beautiful solo numbers, "One Song" from Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs and "I've Grown Accustomed to Her Face" from the ever-popular musical, My Fair Lady. He also closed the program by singing "The Lord's Prayer." His accompanist was Mrs. Frank Serafin.

Nehalem Chapter members presented an original skit by Emma Bush for the honored guest's pleasure. It was made effective by the use of black lights and depicted the busy time and schedules of an associate grand conductress as she travels over Eastern Oregon on her official business. She was presented with a gift and arm bouquet of red roses.

Members of the Portland and vicinity associate conductress group, known as the Lily Annes, gave a pretty addendum in which they formed the baton within a star, emblem of the office, and a lily. They used the music from Hi Lily with original words to honor their grand officer and presented her with a gift.

Irene McKinley, past grand matron, whistled and played several numbers during the refreshment hour.

Beautiful dahlias were used to decorate the rooms and the tables. These were from the garden of Mrs. J. A. Yeager.

Forest Chapter, Forest Grove, graciously made pretty little pin-on favors for everyone.

Mrs. T. F. Tomlin attended the gift table; Mrs. F. E. West and Mrs. Ralph Bergerson were in charge of the guest books. Pouring punch were Mrs. Frank Serafin and Mrs. Paul Gordon. Coffee was served by Past Grand Matron Irene McKinley, Mrs. Sam Hearing Jr., Mrs. Harry Sandon and Mrs. T. F. Tomlin.

The refreshment - decorating committee was: Mrs. Sam Hearing Sr., Mrs. Serafin, Mrs. D. Hershey, Mrs. Lottie Swanson and Mrs. James Johns, who were assisted by other members. Bert Brunzman and Jim Johns were in charge of seating.

Hostesses at the doors were Mrs. Swanson, Mrs. Bush and Mrs. Hearing Sr.

Young People Club Has Meeting at Hillsboro

MIST—Friday Mrs. Fred Busch entertained the Young Peoples club members at her home in Hillsboro. Those who enjoyed her hospitality were Mary Sanders, Virginia Hansen, Shirley and Irene Kyser. They were happy to see Berna Howry who came from Grande Ronde to join the group.

Roy Kyser was one of the lucky elk hunters in the Jewell area.

Mrs. Ken Justus of Creswell visited the Charles Hansens last Thursday. Mrs. Justus is a niece of Mrs. Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Reynolds motored to Westport Sunday afternoon where they called on Mrs. McMan.

Bob Mathews spent the week end at his home from Longview where he is a student at the college.

Please advise us of your new address if you are planning to move.

Stork Leaves Family Firsts at Three Homes

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Wilkins are the parents of a son, Robert Eugene who weighed in at 8 pounds, 2 ounces Monday of last week, October 29, at the Vernonia Clinic. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Akers of Timber route, Mrs. Louis Kaehn of Gilchrist and Ross Wilkins of Goldendale, Washington. The mother and babe are now at the home of the paternal great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Newell Wood on Stoney Point road until they are ready to go to Tillamook where Mr. Wilkins is employed. Other great grandparents are Mrs. Dora Rhamy of Vallisca, Iowa and Charlie Stevenson of Molalla.

Another first son who arrived last week is Brad Lawrence Notestine who made his appearance Wednesday, October 31 at Portland Sanitarium. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Larry Notestine and he weighed in at 6½ pounds. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Serafin of Vernonia and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Notestine of Portland. Great grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Dan Beeler of St. Helens and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Anderson of Portland. Mrs. Notestine, the former Vicky Serafin, and her son came to the home of her parents Sunday to spend a week or so.

Mrs. Evelyn Heath is another proud grandmother this week who is happy over the arrival of a granddaughter November 1. The young lady is the first child of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ladd of Portland. She weighed in at 7 pounds at Emanuel hospital and has been named Susan Kelly. Grandparents in addition to Mrs. Heath are Mr. and Mrs. Homer Ladd of Reedsport and great grandparents are A. B. Heath of Davenport, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Madison of Kellogg, Oregon and I. E. Ladd of Drumright, Oklahoma.

Social Security Topic For Extension Unit

Mrs. Antone Smejkal and Mrs. Richard Jensen will present a lesson on "Your Stake in Social Security" to those who attend the meeting of the Timber Route Extension Unit next Tuesday at the Vernonia Grange hall.

The meeting will start at 10:30 a.m. and the same ladies will be hostesses for the potluck dinner to be served at noon. The meeting is open to all who are interested in attending.

READ ADVERTISING-IT PAYS

Mist Helping Circle to Dine November 15

MIST—The Mist Helping Circle meets at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Beach Thursday, November 15. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon.

Those who called on the Sam Devines Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Root and son of Scappoose and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Case.

Mrs. L. P. Mathews accompanied by her daughter Virginia and son Stanley spent the week end at Manzanita at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wright.

Mrs. Sam Devine accompanied Mrs. Clair Devine and Caria to Hillsboro last Friday where they called on Mrs. Ted Gernhart.

Legion Groups To Note Dates

Members of the American Legion and auxiliary, their families and friends will gather at the Legion hall tomorrow evening, Friday, November 9, for a potluck dinner in observance of Veterans Day which this year falls on Sunday, November 11.

Along with this observance, members are asked to look ahead to Christmas and at the same time think of the less fortunate veterans who are confined to the Veterans hospital by bringing gifts such as towels, pillow cases, shaving articles, make-up and toilet articles for women patients, or cash donations for the Christmas cheer fund at the hospital.

STUDENTS from Welcome Rumbaugh's Vo-Ag classes at VHS are pictured at the Robert Sword farm recently where they heard Walter Anderson, soil scientist from Hillsboro tell about soil profile geological formation, texture and structure.

Soil Conservation Service Photo

Pythian Sisters Date Roll Call

Vernonia Temple Pythian Sisters will observe homecoming and roll call at the meeting set for Wednesday of next week, November 14. Past Chiefs will fill the chairs and the recollection ceremony will be exemplified. Also, there will be a special love offering taken. All members are urged to attend.

At the meeting held October 24, reports were heard from the grand temple sessions in Portland at which Mrs. Charley Hickman was representative and Mrs. Frank Lange alternate.

Following a short business session, Mrs. Launee Cousins entertained the group with some readings pertaining to Halloween. Following adjournment, refreshments of pumpkin pie, doughnuts, coffee and tea were served by members of the Past Chiefs club at tables decorated in the Halloween motif. Jack-o-lanterns and skeletons about the room added to the spirit of the occasion.

Frank Birt Hospitalized For Observation, Care

TIMBER RT.—Frank Birt was taken to Tuahly Community hospital in Hillsboro for observation Tuesday evening of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gibson Sr. from Amboy, Washington visited Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gibson Jr. and family Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Falconer, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Thacker and Mrs. Nell Thacker were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stowell at Buxton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Teeling from Portland visited Mrs. Nell Thacker Saturday.

Vikes Plan Open House For Golden Anniversary

Sunday, November 11, will be open house at the home of Oscar and Ragena Vike to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. All friends of Ma and Oscar are invited to drop in to see them on that special day.

Vernonia Eagle

THURSDAY, NOV. 8, 1962 3

DERREL ROSE

Our concern is to give you considerate care, handle all details with a service of quiet dignity and beauty that will comfort you and your family for years to come.

PRICKETT'S MORTUARY

OF FOREST GROVE

Please Call Collect 1920 Pacific Ave.—Dial EL 7-3126

Don't run out of MILK
for the weekend!

GET MORE DARIGOLD MILK

★ Better Quality for Less Here! ★

CATSUP Standby 14-oz Bottles..... 2 For 45c

TOMATOES Standby 303 Tins..... 5 For $1

TUNA FISH Standby No. 1/2 Tins..... 3 For 89c

GREEN BEANS Standby Cut Medium Size..... 4 For 89c

INSTANT COFFEE M.J.B. 6-oz. Jar..... 79c

SAFFLOWER OIL Betty Crocker 28oz. Btl..... 79c

SCOURING PADS SOS Pkg..... 25c

HEINS HONEY Creamed 4-oz..... 3 For 25c

DRY MILK Darigold—Instant Non-fat..... 12-Qt. Pkg. 79c

SANDWICH COOKIES Tru Blu 2-lb. Pkg. 55c

POP CORN Pops Rite White or Yellow..... 2 Lbs. 29c

FLOOR WAX Stride Wash and Wear..... 26-oz. $1.19

CAKE MIX Pennant Brilliant—For Fruit Cake..... 16-z. Jar 49c

RAINIER CHEESE..... Lb. 59c

SAM'S FOOD STORE

FREE DELIVERY

PHONE HA 9-5501