

State Officer At PEO Meeting

A special PEO meeting was held at the home of Mrs. T. M. Hobart November 6 for the official visit of the state organizer, Mrs. E. R. Quinn of LaGrande. Exemplification of the ritual was given with Mrs. Owen East acting as candidate.

Mrs. Quinn spoke of the foreign exchange student system and the international peace scholarship fund which this year will bring over 100 young women from foreign countries to the colleges and universities in the United States and Canada.

She also mentioned the PEO educational fund which loans money to young women who need assistance to continue their higher educations. The fund was started in 1909 with $658.88. This fund has multiplied 10,000 times in loans granted and today stands at $6,619,000 for the benefit of over 14,000 students. It is the largest educational loan fund in the world.

Due to many conflicting interests, the BIL party was postponed until after the first of the year.

The next meeting will be November 27 at the home of Mrs. Sam Hearing Jr., who will also give the program, "A Long Day's Journey into Night," a play by Eugene O'Neil.

Drain Clears Water Tanks

During the power outage following the Columbus Day storm, many persons who attempted to get hot water from the drain at the bottom of the water tanks, were unsuccessful due to the large amount of sediment that had accumulated in the bottom of the tanks.

Householders are reminded that a hot water tank can be a most convenient source of water in an emergency, and it would be most wise to flush and drain the tank through the bottom drain periodically, so it will be clean and free running should an emergency arise. Don't delay! Do it today!

Lost Billfold Holds Mystery

Incidents can often be puzzling and Jim Fletcher was involved in one such in recent weeks.

In August, Jim attended the fair in Seattle and while on the grounds discovered that his billfold was missing, apparently lifted from his hip pocket. It contained only six or seven dollars, but that was money he'd counted on for doing all the interesting things at the fair. Also, the usual cards and such in his billfold were needed and caused him a degree of frustration when they were missing.

Just recently, about two months after the visit to the fair, the billfold came to Jim intact, money, cards and all, and had been mailed from the Ben Paris Sporting Goods store in downtown Seattle where they said it had been found in a restroom.

How the billfold got there is a mystery. Jim did not go downtown, so someone else had to take it there. Whether someone did pick his pocket, then get conscience stricken can only be speculated on. Anyway, he was glad for its return, even if mystified by it.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vike Observe Golden Anniversary On Sunday

An elopement long ago has culminated in 50 years of happiness for Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Vike who celebrated their golden anniversary with open house at their home on Corey Hill Sunday, November 11.

Mrs. Vike was the 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Lee of Mt. Vernon, Washington who left for school the morning of November 11, 1912 and eloped with Oscar Vike, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Vike of Conway, Washington. They were married in Vancouver, B. C.

All their children were here Sunday to celebrate including Mr. and Mrs. James Vike and John Vike of Vancouver, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Layman (Frances) and family of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Redmond (Nora) and boys and Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dougherty (Shirley) and children of Vernonia.

Two beautiful cakes and coffee and punch were served. One cake, a beautiful three-tiered one, was a gift from Peterson Bakery to the couple.

Seventy-five friends and relatives helped celebrate the day. Many beautiful gifts were received as well as the lovely cards and $50 on the money tree.

The out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. Brayme and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Bagnall of Kelso, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wyman, Burlington, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Chris Vike, Emma Fox, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Mt. Vernon, Washington; Elaine Baggaley, Bothell, Washington; Bertha Davis, Vancouver, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Clayton and son, Astoria; Tom Flattley, San Diego, California.

Mr. and Mrs. Bagnall were neighbors of the Vikes at Nagrom, Washington 44 years ago and Tom Flattly, who came from San Diego, was their neighbor 39 years ago at North River in South Bend.

If the Lord is willing and all's well," say Ma and Oscar, friends are all invited to help celebrate their 75th anniversary, too.

Ladies Finish Dress Project

The wool dress workshop sessions conducted by County Extension Agent Mrs. Margaret Allyn were concluded Monday, November 12. There have been 13 women taking the course, several for training as project leaders and the others on an individual basis. The garments made have turned out very well and will be modeled at a later date.

For the group that has been taking the evening class in the wool dress construction at the home of Mrs. Ray Lamping the final class will be held next Monday, November 19 at 6:30 p.m.

The next meeting of the Vernonia Unit is today, November 15 at 11:00 a.m. at the West Oregon Electric building. Mrs. T. F. Keasey and Mrs. Merl Cline will present the lesson on "Your Family's Stake in Social Security."

Camp-Out Climaxes Goodwill Bag Pickup

A group of Boy Scouts, accompanied by Scoutmaster Don Cameron and R. C. Lindsay, collected Goodwill bags Saturday, then headed for Camp Wilkerson for an overnight camp-out. The boys who enjoyed the outing were Keny and Jim Lindsay, Eddie Burton, Douglass Steele, Keith and Wayne Cameron, Myron Dennis, Gary Davis, Albert Brunsmann and Stanley Meyer.

Some bags were not put out for the boys Saturday due to the stormy weather, so some may have been missed. Those who still have filled bags should call the scoutmaster or one of the boys.

Meat Cutting Bulletin Out

Farmers and big game hunters can make good wages cutting their own meat this fall and winter—and can obtain a handy step by step guide from Oregon State University.

"Let's Cut Meat," a 32-page illustrated bulletin just published by OSU Extension Service, spells out in careful detail the acceptable methods for cutting beef, veal, lamb and mutton, and pork.

John H. Landers, OSU animal husbandry specialist, says general instructions for cutting beef also apply to elk. Oregon residents may obtain free copies of the bulletin from local county agents or the OSU Bulletin Clerk, Corvallis.

Nearly 100 easy-to-follow illustrations show how to cut up a carcass; how to bone, roll, and tie a cut of meat; and how to cut roasts, steaks, and special meat cuts.

The bulletin discusses chilling, aging, and care of meat. Necessary tools and equipment and their proper care are also illustrated.

Landers says there is increased interest among farmers in doing their own meat cutting that provides meat for home use at actual cost of production. He noted that the bulletin should be of interest not only to farmers, hunters, and homemakers but to others concerned with production, processing, and consumption of meat.

The trouble with the man who thinks he knows it all, is that usually he knows it all wrong.

Cable Car Film Shown At Veterans Day Dinner

After a very bountiful pot luck dinner November 9 at the Legion hall, J. W. Nichols gave the first part of the American Legion history which he is compiling.

Then very interesting pictures were shown of the cable cars in San Francisco. Once each year they hold a celebration honoring the cable car.

The first cars were drawn by mules and were established in 1873. Electric cars came in 1905. At one time, they were drawn by eight horses. Horses wore bells to warn pedestrians. There are 1700 miles of cable. The longest single cable is three and a half miles. The cables are in the street groove with the car attached to it by huge jaws. At intersections where cables cross, cars coast across, attaching to cables again. It takes first class know-how to run these cars.

Some are 30 feet long and carry 35 people, others more. Riders need a good toe hold and a prayer. Some turn on turn-tables at the end of the line. Passengers help push it around, so they really never reach the end of the line. The steepest hill has a 22 per cent grade.

There will be no pot luck November 23 as that is the day after Thanksgiving. The regular meeting will be held at 8 p.m.
