Magruder Wins Congress Trip

Dick Magruder, Route 2, Clatskanie, has just been announced as State 4-H winner in the National 4-H Swine awards program.

He will receive an all-expense paid trip to the National 4-H Club Congress, November 25-29, at the Conrad-Hilton Hotel in Chicago where more than 1,500 other 4-H club members from throughout the nation will be on hand. He'll also be in competition for one of the six national awards which provide $400 college scholarships.

All county, state and national awards in the 4-H Swine category are sponsored by the Moorman Manufacturing company, Quincy, Illinois, manufacturers of feed concentrates, mineral feeds and parasite control products. Moorman's will honor the state swine award winners at a breakfast Wednesday, November 28.

County-wide program of the 4-H Club is supervised by the cooperative extension service.

Early Filing Speeds Claims

The first part of every year hundreds of people eligible for social security payments decide to file for their benefit. The impact of all these claimants filing at one time results in slower processing of claims and delay in sending out the first check. Frank J. Laheny, field representative of the Social Security administration office in Portland is as anxious to forward the applications for payment as each wage earner is to receive his check.

In an effort to pay claims as quickly as possible, Mr. Laheny suggests that anyone contemplating retirement within the next three months should come in to talk to one of the staff. An application for benefits can be filed as much as three months before retirement age. Filing an application before the end of this year will assist the social security people in making quicker payment to those filing now, as well as speed up payment to those who for one reason or another cannot file until some time next year.

Anyone reaching retirement age should check with the social security office as to their rights to benefits. Due to a liberalization of the Social Security Act in 1961 many wage earners even though they continue to work may be entitled to some benefits. Any insured person of retirement age earning $1200 or less a year can draw all his benefits for that year. In the event of earnings over $1200 the amount payable diminishes as the earnings increase.

Mr. Laheny said that the slogan, "Inquire Before You Retire" should be kept in mind by everyone. The Social Security administration office is located at 1205 S.W. 13th avenue. The telephone number is CAPITOL 6-3361. If it is inconvenient to call at the Portland district office, a representative is at St. Helens every Monday at the Columbia county court house—sheriff's office, ground floor. The hours are from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

If you are the parent of a man between the ages of 17 and 23 now is the time to look into his military future. Every man has an obligation to his country and his community. "With the new missile age military program, a man can fill his military obligation and gain useful knowledge and skill," says Master Sgt. Bob Simpson.

Captain Kjornes says, "Young men should get their active duty over with this winter while work in this area is slack." The training program now in existence is designed for men who are planning to attend college or who are working.

The "take six" program allows a man 17 to 18½ to enter the national guard on a three year enlistment with six months active duty at Fort Ord, California. The program is the same for men over 18½ years old except they have an obligation for 5½ years.

The national guard has a program tailor-made for high school seniors. Enlist now while you are still in high school. Learn the basic skills. Next summer after graduation you will be sent for six months active duty training at Fort Ord and will be back in time for college winter term.

The national guard at St. Helens meets each Monday night. Drop in and investigate the new missile-age program.
