

Union Honors Vet Members

Twenty-seven veteran members of Local 3-14, International Woodworkers of America, were honored by the union at a dinner at the Victory House restaurant at Tillamook Saturday, August 8.

Service pins marking 25 years or more membership in the IWA were presented to the men. Their wives also were guests at the dinner.

Among those who received a pin was A. F. Hartung, Portland international president of the IWA since 1951. Before becoming a full-time officer of the union, Hartung worked for many years as a logger in the Vernonia area.

Although a few are retired, most of the veterans who received pins still work as loggers and in sawmills in the local union area, which extends from Forest Grove to Tillamook. All are dues-paying members of Local 3-14.

In addition to those at the dinner, 33 other members are eligible for the service pins and will receive them from the local union.

Pins were presented by Willis P. Carver, business agent, and Lloyd Davidson, vice-president of Local 3-14.

Those present at the dinner to get service pins were:

A. F. Hartung, Edward P. Kellar, F. J. Smith, R. Lee Johnson, Ralph Sutor, Harry T. Fellows, Harry Clark, Samuel Anderson, Albert E. Schedwin, Guy Tiffney, E. G. Anderson, Don Applegate, Joseph B. Carter, Oreste Bernardi, Frank Lange, James G. Cox Jr., Raymond R. East-er, Glen W. Gibson, August Hilbers, Fred McEachern, Maurice A. Van Loo, V. A. Warland, C. E. Buckner, Thurman DeHart, Chester Anderson, Marlin Engle and Clarence Blackburn.
