Youth Series Slated By Assembly of God

William Anderson, pastor of the Assembly of God church, announced this week that a special series of youth meetings will be held at their church next week under the leadership of Wesley and Wanda Cronk of Mt. Angel. The meetings will be herd at 7:30 p.m. each evening Monday, September 14 through Friday, September 18 and they are open to all who wish to attend.

Ministers Name Officer Slate

The Vernonia Ministerial association met September 6 at the EUB church with almost a full attendance from the entire area.

The election of officers resulted in the re-election of Rev. Raymond Targgart as president, Rev. William P. Armstrong as vice president and treasurer, and Rev. Lillian Wilson as secretary.

The Christian youth group was commended for their work the past year and promised continued backing and encouragement by the Ministerial association.

Rev. L. A. DuBose, pastor at the First Baptist church, was welcomed into the association.

Pastor Is Called By Baptist Church

Members of the First Baptist church of Vernonia are pleased to announce that they have called the Rev. L. A. DuBose as pastor.

Sunday morning, September 13 at 11 a.m. Rev. DuBose will answer the call, using as his subject, "Now therefore give me this mountain" (Joshua 14:12). The evening sermon will be a study of the third chapter of Daniel.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

Rev. DuBose comes to Vernonia from Hillsboro and will maintain his residence there and commute. His wife is a library teacher in Hillsboro. They have two sons in college and a daughter in high school.

CLUB

Rally to Open Portland Y-C

One of the greatest club years in the history of Portland Youth for Christ will be heralded by a fall kick-off rally on Saturday night, September 5, at 7:30 o'clock at Benson high school.

Featuring the 1964-65 Youth for Christ club officers from the greater Portland area on parade, the rally will include the introduction of the area council officers for the coming year and a look at at the bright new concept in Bible quizzing, "The Huddle." The first annual presidential banquet for all club presidents and their advisors will be held at 5:30 Saturday.

The rally program will include the Varisity male quartet, four Whitworth College vocal collegiates, with a wide variety of musical talent. Speaker for the evening will be Christian Hild, nationally known evangelist who has preached in all states, Canada, England, Europe and the Holy Land. Known as The King of the Magicians, his art has been used on television and in youth rallies along with his preaching ministry. On the rally Hild will present his magic Battle of the Flags.

Speaker Slated By Nazarenes

Sunday, September 13, will be rally Day at the Church of the Nazarene. All former pupils who have been out for the summer and all friends of the Rev. Harry Russell are urged to attend and hear Rev. Russell who has consented to be the speaker at this Sunday School Rally Day service, which will honor Karen Russell's last day here prior to leaving next week for Nampa, Idaho to attend Northwestern Nazarene College on a scholarship sponsored by the college.

Every attendant will receive a momento of the occasion and there will be prizes for the largest families present and other remembrances, according to Mrs. A. W. Wilson,

FOLLOWING THE FOOTSTEPS OF

WORK CONTRACT

Suppose you have just been hired as a machinist or a truck driver or carpenter. You have given the clerk your name, address and social security number. Your new employer has told you to come to work tomorrow at 8 o'clock.

You have just made a contract with your new employer. In a contract two or more people exchange promises to do certain things for each other. In some contracts, the terms are written out - as when you buy a house or a car. But you do not need to spell out all the promises in a contract to work.

Simple words: "You want to work for me?" and your reply: "O.K."will be enough to put the contract into effect.

Besides your employer's duty as to your hours, pay, and working conditions, you, too, have taken on a few duties. Say so or not, the law assumes you agreed to come to work on time, to do satisfactory work, and to do your job as best you can.

Apart from any special contract, if your employer dislikes your work he can discharge you. If you do not like your job you can quit. Unless you agree otherwise, this firing quitting can take place any time. Upon notice either employer or employee can end the employment.

If your employer has signed a collective bargaining contract with the union covering your work, the contract may make other provision as to discharge.

It is a courtesy to give notice to your employer before you quit so that you can keep your name as a reliable worker, especially if it takes time to break in the new worker.

LIE DETECTORS

Police officers sometimes use lie detectors to check the story of an accused person or a witness.

Use of a lie detector may help the police in their investigation of a crime, as well as encourage confessions and help clear innocent persons, Industry, federal agencies, and other employers sometimes use lie detectors to screen applicants.

As a rule though, no one is allowed to testify in court about lie detector results, or even to mention the fact that the accused was willing to take one.

Why? The courts say that lie detector tests are not reliable enough yet. They feel that there are causes other than conscious lying for blood pressure changes and nervous imaminers may not be able to detect reactions of unresponsive people, for example those who are in shock or exhaustion, or who may be "pathological" liars, or mentally deficient.

On the other hand you could have a hard time "beating" the machine, examiners claim. The more you try, the easier it is for the machine to

At least that is the present thinking. Lie detectors are good tools of investigation, but their reliability will have to be more thoroughly proven before their results will be allowed as evidence in court.

Hatfield Opens Events at Fair

Governor Mark O. Hatfield, with the help of his two children, Elizabeth 5, and Mark Jr., 4, plus a crowd of state officials and various other dignitaries, officially opened the 1964 Oregon state fair here on the first day of a scheduled nine-day state

The opening signaled the start of a variety of special events, shows, exhibits, contests and colorful displays which make up the huge, "bigger than ever" 99th annual Oregon state fair.

On hand to open the fair were state fair commissioners, Marion T. Weatherford, this year's chairman; Theodore E. Shoop, vice-chairman; Ezra Koch, secretary; Ursel C. Narver and Sanford Nemerovsky, plus entertainers Johnny Desmond, Gail Caldwell, Jackie Miller and Kirby Grant, TV's "Sky King" who flew into Salem at 9 a.m. as a speical guest of the fair.

4-H and Future Farmers of America exhibitors prepared their many exhibits for the opening day and the entertainers for the all-Oregon talent show made ready for the first performance of the fair.

While the opening day ceremonies were taking place and Oregon's Dairy Princess, Linda Schild of Tillamook, was passing out ice cream to the governor's children and hundreds of onlookers, the Christensen Brothers, stockmen from Eugene, were preparing several of their best bucking broncs and steers for the giant Rodeo Horse Show scheduled to take place during the nine days or the fair. Horse racing, always a part of state fairs, got underway at 1:30 in the afternoon on the first day of an eight-day run.

Garden growers and flower experts were on hand early for the opening and judging which took place that day on their various displays.

Attendance - wise, Fair Manager Howard Maple expects more than 400,000 people to visit this year's colorful Oregon event.
