

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Mrs. Lois Thayer returned Sunday evening from a two week trip to Idaho where she attended the Lewiston Roundup and visited brothers and sisters in Clarkston, Juliaetta and Fairfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eckland enjoyed a family get-together at the home of her sister, Mrs. Neuse in Portland in honor of her son, Major T. R. Harris and family. The family has just returned from Germany where Major Harris has been stationed with the air force for a number of years. About 30 immediate family members were present to greet them.

Mr. and Mrs. James Johns and Timmy and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thompson drove to Pendleton Friday evening and were week end guests at the home of Mr. Johns parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Johns, while attending the events of the annual Round-up. They returned home Sunday evening. They reported perfect weather and huge crowds at the various events.

The place in the Kist district from which the R. J. Ekhofts moved last week after selling it to the W. H. Gardners from California was the former Clifford Bergerson, rather than Peter Bergerson, place as inadvertently stated last week. The house now on the place was built by the Clifford Smiths who purchased the place from the Bergersons.

Horace Hertel, Dr. T. M. Hobart and son Mike and George Glodt spent last week on a fishing trip to lakes in the area of the Willamette river headwaters near Century Drive. They hiked in to four or five lakes for fishing. Dr. Hobart, is reported to have taken honors for the largest fish caught. Mike Hobart, who has just completed another summer of working at Timberline Lodge was picked up there by the rest of the group. He is now preparing for his third year at Lewis and Clark college in Portland.

Mrs. Trilla Anderson was in Tillamook recently for several days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Chet Anderson. While there she attended the wedding of her grandson, Ronald Anderson. Tuesday of last week, she daughter, Mrs. Edith Roediger, took her to Newberg to visit her sister, Mrs. Vida Jones at the rest home. Mrs. Jones observed her eightieth birthday Sunday.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Steers was their daughter, Mrs. Mary Cota and children Chris and Sandy, who went to Forest Grove for the week end with her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Schamp and family, then returned here. Her husband, Bill Cota was recently discharged from the navy and is now working near Oakridge where they probably will be located.

Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Steers were in Portland and called on his nephew, Larry Kuehn at Reed College.

Mrs. Doris Skidmore drove to Coquille Friday evening to be there Saturday for the annual F.L. Clubs convention. The order is a Rebekah affiliate. She served as escort to the vice-president during the sessions.

Mrs. Hazel Shipman spent Saturday night and Sunday at McMinnville with her grandchildren so their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Shipman could take a naval reserve cruise from Swan Island to Longview. The cruise is a once a year event on which Naval Reserve personnel are accompanied by their wives.

Craig Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Davies, returned home recently from a two weeks vacation in Honolulu at the home of friends. Among other places of interest toured was Pearl Harbor. On his return home he left for Corvallis to start his senior year at Oregon State University. Since he is vice-president at the Chi Phi fraternity, he went early for rush week activities. He and Marvin Crowston are members of the same fraternity.

A dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fuller Sunday honored their daughter Michele on her fourth birthday. Guests were the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Cook from Woodland, Washington; Otis Fuller from Banks and great-grandmother, Mrs. Marie Shafer of Vernonia; an uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cagle of Vernonia and Mrs. Vesta Frydendahl of Manning.

Logger coach Bob Wendel participated in the alumni football game played Friday night at Pacific University at Forest Grove. The alumni won 31-20 and Coach Wendel accounted for six of these points on a 50-yard pass play. Wendel played half-back.

Sam Murray is making good recovery from his recent illness that required him to be hospitalized for a time. He is now able to have some company.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wally Noakes Tuesday and Wednesday of last week were Mr. and Mrs. Dan Thomas of Salt Lake City with whom the Noakes had worked about 40 years ago. Last week end, they had as guests Clarence Malcolm and Mr. and Mrs. Hank Sofinski of Arcadia, California.

Mrs. Irma Chance returned home Tuesday from a 10-day vacation in Washington with two brothers and their families. One brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Deorge of Port Angeles stopped here September 10 enroute home from a vacation trip down the Oregon coast and after an overnight visit here, they took Mrs. Chance with them to Oakville where she stopped to visit another brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Curt Deorge. She then went on to Port Angeles and while there she also had a visit with a former Vernonia resident, Mrs. Robert Lindsay when they both were guests for tea at the home of her niece, Mrs. Larry Hanis.

Mr. and Mrs. Elgus P. Frank spent the week end in Bay City visiting the Jack Frank family. Paul, their grandson, had a thrilling moment last week while at the Shrine hospital in Portland for a check up, when he had the pleasure of seeing President Lyndon Johnson on his visit to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderegg received a card Tuesday from their son Ron which he had mailed in Spain. He had flown from Virginia where he is stationed to Europe for a vacation tour.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEntire and Mrs. Guy Thomas went huckleberry picking last Saturday in the Shearer Burn area at Kinzel lake, about 10 miles south of Government Camp and found picking very good until they were rained out. They spent the night at Rhododendron, then drove around the Mt. Hood loop Sunday with a stop at Odel to visit Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dubendorf and stops at Bonneville and other points of interest.

Probably the most excited lady in Vernonia Tuesday of this week was Mrs. Ray Lamping who was acclaimed Lady of the Day by Ray Horn, disk jockey at KGW radio. Some time ago, Mrs. Lamping sent a card to him with the date of her birthday. Each day, he pulls out one card from among those whose birthday falls on that date and Tuesday hers was selected. Dick Nightwine heard and knocked on her door to tell her to call the station quickly to qualify, which she did. She will receive tickets to Holiday on Ice and other gifts.

Last Thursday night, the Vernonia ambulance was called to take little Pam Steele, one-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steele, to the Tuality hospital after she became ill and went into convulsions which would not abate. She was placed in oxygen there and given other treatment until Saturday. She is recovering nicely now.

Jensen to Sing During Recital

An evening of organ music will be presented Sunday, October 4 at 8:00 p.m. at the First Congregational church in Portland by Dr. D. Doane Hutchison, and John P. Jensen, former Vernonia teacher, will appear on the program to sing three mystical songs by Ralph Vaughan Williams.

Dr. Hutchison, who is the minister of music at the First Congregational church and professor of organ at Pacific University, will present an interesting collection of organ numbers.

Jensen, who gave the information while in Vernonia Monday, is now music teacher at Cornelius, and chairman of Music in May sponsored by the Pacific University School of Music. Songs he will sing are "I Got Me Flowers", "Love Bade Me Welcome" and "The Call" by Ralph Vaughan Williams.

He extended an invitation to local residents to attend the concert and the reception that will follow it.

Meet Held at Svenson Home

BIRKENFELD—The Nehalem Valley Garden clubbers went to Svenson last Wednesday to meet with one of their members, Mrs. John Acton. They all had a bountiful pot luck dinner and a very enjoyable time. Those going were Mesdames Lena Mathews, Ellen Wanstrom Saxon Barlow, Ellen Lonquist, May Mills, Pansy Stinchfield, Elma Baker, Lora Hopkins and Anna Hanberg. The group was joined at Jewell by Mrs. Felix Wilcoxon and Mrs. Albert Enevoldsen. Mrs. Acton left by plane Thursday for Anchorage, Alaska where she will visit indefinitely with her daughter and family.

Douglas Bellingham left last Tuesday for Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He will have advanced artillery training there for nine weeks. Then he expects to be stationed at Fort Lewis. Mrs. Lloyd Beach and Mrs. Elsa Richardson recently spent a few days visiting with the Don Halls at Morton, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Larson spent the week end with the Buddy Larsons at Netarts. While there the men built a 12 foot boat for Buddy and his family.

Roger Berg and a friend of his, Jane Bailey of Hillsboro, spent the week end at Shirley Bergs.
