Johnson-Hayes Vows Taken In Forest Grove Church Rites

The Congregational church at Forest Grove, attractively decorated with white gladioli, was the scene of the pretty fall wedding September 11 at which Miss Mildred Louise Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes Jr. of Gaston, became the bride of Larry Rey Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Vernonia. The 8:00 p.m. ceremony was read by the Reverend J. Vincent Crane.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white brocade, complimented by a double back panel and with the bodice silhouetted with scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. Her shoulder-length bouffant veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a formal cascade of white glads surrounding a white orchid.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. Grace Kral, who wore a pale green brocade satin sheath with matching gauntlets and carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli. Other attendants were another sister, Mrs. Richard Seymour of Eagle Creek and Miss Kay Spiesschaert of Forest Grove who wore pale blue brocade satin sheaths and matching gauntlets and carried bouquets to match that of the matron of honor. The candle lighters were Miss Jeanne Hancox and Miss Judy Alexander, both of Forest Grove who wore blue crepe sheath dresses.

Best man was Stanley Enevoldsen of Vernonia, brother-in-law of the groom, and ushers were Richard Seymour of Eagle Creek, Lyle Barker and Jerry Bush of Vernonia.

Wedding music was played by Miss Barbara Engelen of Forest Grove and Marion Knoll of Vernonia was soloist.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church dining room at which Mrs. John Kudrna, aunt of the bride, poured coffee; Miss Vivian Vandehey served punch and Mrs. David Knapp cut and served the cake.

From the reception, the couple left for a honeymoon trip to Oakland and San Francisco, California and for travel the bride wore a red wool suit with white accessories. Upon their return, September 20, they are now at home in Forest Grove.
