Four World War I buddies had a good time recalling memories Monday when Mr. and Mrs. Elbert T. Lemelle from Bellflower, California and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leavens of Oregon City called on Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Stiff, then took them along to Seaside to see Walter Keck who was a lieutenant in the company in which the other three men served. It was the first time Lemelle and Stiff had seen each other for 32

Mrs. Olivia Wood arrived home last week end after spending the past three months at Fresno, California with her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Dauderman. Enroute home she visited with a former Vernonia resident, Mrs. Mary Landaughter accompanied Mrs. Wood from Chico to Portland.

William Adams who lives at 115 Bridge street on OA hill where he moved last year from Eugene is convinced that this soil and climate can produce big potatoes. He planted a small patch 43 feet long and 71/2 feet wide to red potatoes. In the patch were three and a half rows 43 feet long with 35 plants to the row. Last week he harvested his crop and found he had a total of 415 pounds, most of them of large size. He brought a bucket full of two-pounders to the Eagle office to exhibit. He states they are excellent eating and that it has been a joy to raise such a bumper crop.
