Vows Taken at Church Rite

Pink and white flowers and candles graced the altar and chapel of the First Methodist church in St. Helens when Miss Sheryl Jane Tarbell and Robert D. Mathews exchanged wedding vows September 12 at 1 p.m.

Miss Tarbell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tarbell of route 2, Scappoose, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert U. Mathews of Mist. About 80 friends and relatives were present for the ceremony.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Donald Colburn. Traditional wedding music was played by Hal Cook and the soloist was Mrs. Charles Lingo, who sang "I Believe" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father and mother, wore a floor-length white gown with white veil and crown and carried a white Bible with pink rosebuds and gardenias.

Her matron of honor was Christine Tarbell who wore a floor length pink sheath and carried a bouquet of pink roses and white carnations with an orchid in the center.

Louis Jones was the best man and candlelighters were Loren Tarbell and Walter Berg. Loren Tarbell also performed the duties of usher.

The bride's mother chose a blue flowered suit, and the mother of the groom wore a pink and white flowered suit.

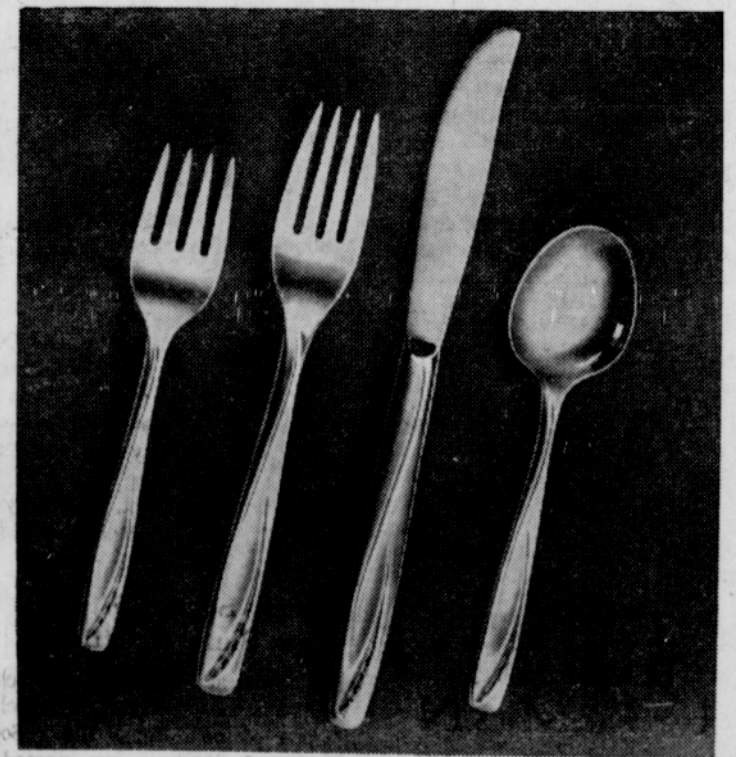

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fireplace room of the church. Bateen Wright poured, assisted by Lena Mathews. Cutting the cake were Eva Harms and Faye Tarbell. Carol Tarbell was in charge of the guest book, and Flora, Faye, Nancy and Jenny Tarbell were in charge of the gift table. Mrs. Wallie Boonhower was responsible for the formal decorations.

The new matron is a graduate of Scappoose union high school and Phager's School of Beauty, while her groom is a graduate of Vernonia high school and Lower Columbia College.

Mrs. Mathews chose a pink and white mohair suit with white accessories for her going away costume with which she wore a pink orchid. The couple spent their honeymoon at Newport Beach and are now at home in Scappoose.
