

Mt. Heart Rebekah Lodge Plans Program for Friendship Night

Prior to the meeting of the Mt. Heart Rebekah lodge Thursday evening, October 8, Joyce Chandler and Darlene Welch, delegates to girls State, gave a very interesting and well prepared report on the activities they had enjoyed at the sessions held in June in Salem. The girls stayed on the Willamette University campus and part of the activities took place in the capitol building. Mt. Heart Rebekah Lodge cooperates with the American Legion auxiliary in financing delegates to this citizenship training program.

Mathilde Bergerson, vice grand, presided over the meeting in the absence of Noble Grand Reatha Horn who was ill. Her station, in turn, was filled by Past Noble Grand Bessie Tapp of North Plains who was attending a meeting here for the first time in several years.

Additional plans were made for friendship night which will be held October 22. Many interesting things are planned by the program committee, Mrs. Henry Andregg, Mrs. Charles Minger and Mrs. Evelyn Heath. Invitations have gone out to surrounding lodges and members of Mt. Heart lodge are all urged to attend.

An invitation was received from Plympton Rebekah Lodge at Westport for their friendship night, October 27.

An interesting letter was read from Julieann Hensel of Warrenton who had been the delegate from this district to the United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth this past summer. She thanked this lodge for their share in making the trip possible for her and told highlights of the tour. She expressed her increased thankfulness for being a citizen of the United States and her pride in her own state, Oregon.

Mrs. Marie Atkins, district deputy president for Mt. Heart Lodge, installed Mrs. Henry Andregg as inside guardian to fill the vacancy created when Mrs. Sina Baker moved to Portland. She was assisted by Mrs. Zoe Salomonsen as marshal.

As an expression of appreciation for assistance given by the Rebekahs at the golden wedding reception for the M. B. Willards, their daughter, Mrs. Joy Bonney, contributed to the lodge memorial fund.

Plans were made for serving the dinner for the West Oregon Electric annual meeting October 17.

It was announced that first nomination of officers for the 1965 term would be made October 22.

Following the meeting, a social hour was enjoyed around the tables in the dining room and delicious cakes were served by Mrs. Florence Akers, Mrs. Geneva Killingburg and Mrs. Mable Graves.

Rainbow Girls Seat Officers

Rainbow installation was held October 4 for Christine King, who was crowned the new worthy advisor. Her theme is "Climb Every Mountain," and her colors are brown, gold and white.

The following girls were installed: Kathy Minger, worthy assistant advisor; Marilyn Jones, charity; Ann Bergerson, hope; Chris Bender, faith; Mary Andrus, recorder; Marsha Krieger, treasurer; Nancy Hamnett, love; Jeanette Aultman, nature; Marilyn King, religion; Alison Hall, fidelity; Diana Rodger, patriotism; Christine Landers, service; Virginia Nelson, drill leader; Judy Stockwell, confidential observer; Marsha Aldrich, outer observer; Sharon Brunson, musician; Linda Sawyer, historian; Darthula Grosche, news reporter; Mary Lou Carter, jewel keeper and Betty Berg, chaplain.

After the officers received their jewels, the Clatskanie DeMolay boys performed the crowning ceremony.

Mary Andrus then received the honorary necklace which Mr. and Mrs. Moran contributed to the Rainbow Girls of Vernonia when they moved.

Refreshments were then served. The installation was open to the public and many citizens were present.

Highlight of the evening was having a member from out of town, Mrs. A. L. Kullander of Independence present. There also was a good turn-out of local members to start the fall season off in good stride.

After the business of the evening was cared for, President Cora Lange led the group in playing two games which were very hilarious and entertaining.

At the next meeting, October 29, members are to bring old Christmas cards and wide ribbon with which to make door swags to be taken to the Oregon-Washington Pythian Home to help make it festive for the holiday season. Each person should also bring scissors for cutting out designs from the cards.

SPENCER HILL
Now Spencer Hill has turned to gold
A frost is on the moon.
Summer has had too brief a stay
And Winter comes too soon.

When Spencer Hill was bravely
green;
Then we were bravely young.
And every book was still unread
And every song unsung.

But Youth, like Summer's stay, is brief
And Spencer Hill is gold.
There's frost on moon and heart
tonight
And you and I are old.
