Civilization has now reached the point where miracle drugs and get-well cards have a hard time keeping up with each other.

Please vote 113 X LAWRENCE MEISSNER. He has the time, energy and ability to study proposed laws. Paid Ad. by Lawrence Meissner, Meissner Road, Deer Island. 4213c

PERSONAL: Did you know that your District Attorney can save you money by cutting down on the taxpayers welfare burden caused by non-paying support-owing fathers? Did you know that he can also produce a substantial financial gain for you, the taxpayer, by processing county claims and promptly and fairly handling criminal matters? Well he can—and he does. Don't risk a change! Re-elect Dave Williamson, District Attorney of Columbia County.

Pd. Pol. Adv. Dave B. Williamson, Box 425, St. Helens, Oregon

Winema H.E.C. Plans Events

BIRKENFELD—Winema HEC met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Art Bellingham with eight members present. The roll call was "Your favorite pickle recipe." Plans were made for the annual potluck harvest supper which will be held at the next regular grange meeting November 5 at 6:30 p.m. It was also voted to have a card party at the grange hall Saturday, October 31 at 8 p.m. There will be prizes and refreshments. The public is invited. The MJB coffee labels and lids were counted and there were more than enough to get the coffee maker. It was suggested to keep on saving the labels and lids to get coffee later. Plans were made for a past masters club evening which was set for Wednesday, October 21. The hostess box was won by Lora Hopkins. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. The next HEC meeting will be at the home of Mrs. G. P. Wanstrom Tuesday, November 10 to avoid conflict with election.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stinchfield left Sunday for Dayville where they plan to stay until election. After returning here to vote they will leave for their home in Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Beach were Clatskanie business callers Saturday. Hank Robinson spent a few days last week visiting with his sister at Missoula, Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Johnston spent the week end at their home here from Warm Springs where he is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Layman and daughter of Jewell visited her folks, the Vick Bergs, Sunday.

YOU VOTED down what the last legislature did, so now vote for a different representative, 113 X LAWRENCE MEISSNER. Paid ad by Lawrence Meissner, Deer Island. 4213c
