Program Plans Made by Circle

MIST—Mrs. Sam Devine and Mrs. Floy Crawford were hostesses Thursday when the Mist Helping Circle met at the Birkenfeld Community Center. There were ten members present with Mrs. Albert Blount and daughter as guests. Mrs. Blount and Mrs. Charles Hansen won the hostess boxes. Members were reminded of the program to be held November 21 and told to be thinking of items for the grab bag, fish pond, white elephant sale and auction. Posters are to be made and put up in various places. Mrs. Bud Hemeon will have the November 19 meeting with Mrs. Al Schiehuber as co-hostess. Members are reminded that the meeting is the third Thursday due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Kyser and family were Friday evening dinner guests at the Dale Leino home. Thursday evening Judy celebrated her 15th birthday with Fawna Goodman of Vernonia helping her.

Mrs. Fred Busch and Marilyn were in Portland Thursday so that Marilyn could check in at the clinic. Miss Peggy Day accompanied them home from Hillsboro for a visit. Peggy's folks, the Don Days, were down from Hillsboro Saturday and she returned with them.

Workmen Share Potluck Dinner

TIMBER—The Helping Hands club met at the home of Mrs. Marjorie Wilcox last Tuesday. It was a busy day for her as she is having a fireplace built in her home. The men constructing it felt it was their lucky day as they got to share in the potluck lunch. Next club meeting will be held at Mrs. Wilcox's home November 18.

Mrs. Vern Sponsel attended a bridal shower at McMinnville Thursday which honored Miss Bonnie Webster whose marriage to Terry Sponsel will take place Saturday, October 31 at St. James church at 10 a.m. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Johnson and Don Williams of Portland came Tuesday for their sister and aunt, Miss Gladys Johnson and took her to Portland where her sister, Mrs. Gertrude Williams had just passed away.

Mrs. Farrell West is busy this week cleaning up a house in Vernonia where she expects to move in about a week. The West boys attend school there and she will make a home there for them until school is out. Mr. West will spend most of his time here yet caring for his hunting dogs and the hides from the animals he has trapped.

Farewell Party Honors Ira Petersons Saturday

MIST—Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ira Peterson were given a farewell party at the Natal Grange with over 50 people attending. A program with Mrs. Robert Kyser playing the piano, Mrs. Bud Hemeon singing and Vicky Hemeon reciting a poem was presented. Mr. Wilkins of Keassey route showed slides, also. Everyone wishes the Petersons much happiness in their new home near Warren.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kulju and Terry of Portland and Bob Roeser and children of Astoria were week end guests at the Charles Hansen and Norman Hansen homes. Mrs. Kulju bagged a deer while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Garlock were in Portland and Vancouver Saturday evening and while there visited with the Roy Totten family and the Vern Wagners.

Group Attends Game At Pacific Saturday

MIST—Mr. and Mrs. Sid Pierce of Washougal were week end guests at the Howard Grimsbo home. Saturday evening the group went to Forest Grove to watch Bob Grimsbo play football. Sunday Bob and five friends visited his folks before returning to their studies at Pacific U. In the afternoon the Grimsbos and guests visited with the Charles Ramsey family and went up the Fishhawk to view the work being done. Mrs. Norman Hansen and Mrs. Bud

Hemeon were in Portland Thursday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Roeser of Eugene visited with the Roy Kysers over the week end. Saturday evening visitors with the Kysers and guests were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kyser and Bob Roeser and children of Astoria.

Bobby Burnham and friend of Portland visited at the Shalmon Libel home Saturday evening. Mrs. Francis Burnham and Loren of Portland and Mrs. Lawton Waddell were Friday evening visitors.
