

TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Guests Tuesday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shipley were his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Shipley from Pasadena, California and his mother, Mrs. Lura Shipley from Portland.

Mrs. B. J. Horn and Mrs. Charles Minger were in Portland Sunday evening to visit Mrs. Albert Tandy at the University of Oregon medical school hospital where she is recuperating from surgery on her spine which was performed Monday of last week. She is making good, though slow, recovery.

Jack Bergerson is one of those lucky elk hunters. Saturday, opening day of the season, at Quartz creek on Sunset highway, three elk, one a legal bull, came right out in front of him. He gave chase and bagged his prey without difficulty. Luckier still was having some friends come along to help him carry it out to his car.

Week end guests at the home of Mrs. M. A. McNutt were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Fluke from Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Fluke and two small daughters from Eugene, Mrs. Ted Anderson from Tillamook, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylan Fluke and Mrs. Judy Gardner from Longview. Jim Fluke and son Darrell hunted elk.

The ninth birthday of Ricky Davis was observed October 30 with a party at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Davis with 14 boys as guests. The party, held after school last Friday, also combined the Halloween theme in games and refreshments.

Mrs. Olivia Wood, accompanied by Mrs. Grace Bundy, Mrs. Olive Powell and Mrs. Blanche Millis, drove to Newberg Sunday afternoon to visit Mrs. Mary Skinner who is in the Newberg hospital recuperating from a hip injury received the previous week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shirley of Gig Harbor, Washington spent last week end here with Mr. and Mrs. Dee Miller. The Thompsons formerly owned the drug store here.

Mrs. Marie Shafer returned home Saturday from Salem where she had spent more than a month with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Shafer. She made a point of getting home in time for election.

An old fashioned Halloween party was held at the home of Miss Sunny DeHart last Saturday evening and guests engaged in such games as spin the bottle, charades and cracker sponging. When they arrived, they were greeted by eerie sounds from a tape recorder and the living room was decorated to resemble a witches den. After midnight, a scavenger hunt was held to whet appetites for the sandwiches, doughnuts, etc. that were served when they reassembled. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Larry Hickman of The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Mask, Miss Nancy Howard, Elvin Stiff, Miss Kathy Weller, Jerry Bush and Richard Huntman. Some of the guests came in costume to add to the fun of the evening.

Week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Borders were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Piquette of Springfield who came for elk hunting. The party in which they hunted brought in one elk.

Lane Daughtry, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Daughtry, entertained friends Saturday afternoon in observance of his seventh birthday. Guests included Brett and Lynette Wuest, with their mother, Mrs. Joe Wuest and small daughter, Brad and Karl Garner who were accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Larry Garner, Scott, Max and Kala Sword, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. A. F. Sword, Ricky Davis, Mrs. Oscar Vike and Mrs. Harvey Redmond. Highlight of the refreshments was a cake decorated to resemble a race track complete with miniature cars.

Mrs. Thora Shafer entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lange Sunday with dinner at the Village Inn, new restaurant near St. Helens. They then enjoyed a ride to see the lovely fall foliage which adds much to the scenery this time of year.

Friends here learned last week of the death of Lester Mowe of Portland. He was the son of former Timber route residents, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Mowe. He is survived by his wife, four children, two sisters, Mrs. Myrtle McCollum of Myrtle Point and Mrs. Edna Kinion of Okaholma, and a brother, Maurice. Interment was at the Willamette National cemetery.

Vernon Bateman, owner of River-view Cabins, who underwent surgery at the University of Oregon medical school hospital two weeks ago, contracted pneumonia but it is now clearing up and he is making steady improvement. He will be in the hospital for some time yet however, and during his absence, Mrs. Bateman's father, Randy Cook of Forest Grove, is here to assist her.

Among new residents to move to this area in recent months are Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Klein and five children who moved to the former Marcus place on Keasey route in July. They formerly lived at Oswego.

Mr. and Mrs. George King of Corvallis were in Vernonia Sunday to visit his mother, Mrs. Blanche King, and his sisters, and husbands, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Ames. George Robertson, father of Mrs. George King, joined the group for dinner. The Kings had received word from Richard Mainwaring that his wife, the former Donna Miller, passed away October 22 in London following a heart attack. Services were held in London October 23. Mr. Mainwaring is teaching in London.

Scouts to Aid Goodwill Work

The annual Boy Scouts and Cub Scouts Goodwill bag distribution will be Saturday, November 7 in the Vernonia area. Scouts will leave the bags on the front porch of homes on the 7th and return the morning of Saturday November 14 to collect the filled bags, according to Ray Lamping, Scoutmaster.

The bags are then deposited at the VFW hall for pickup by a Goodwill truck November 18.

Five hundred handicapped men and women work at Goodwill Industries repairing clothing, toys, appliances, etc. the Scouts gather for them on this special drive. Please help the boys "do their good turn" by gathering up all your usable items, says the Scoutmaster.

Last Services Held at Chapel

Funeral services for Alfred H. Webb, 84, of Glenwood were conducted Wednesday, November 4 at 2 p.m. at the Fuiten-Friesen Mortuary Chapel, Forest Grove.

Mr. Webb passed away at his home at Glenwood Sunday evening following an illness of the past three years.

Rev. Ivan Marble, pastor of the Gales Creek Community church, officiated with Thornton Janama as soloist and Mrs. Gordon Merrill as organist. Lodge rites were conducted by the Vernonia Odd Fellows with Harry Culbertson in charge. Pallbearers were lodge members, Peter Wiederkehr, Ernest Herman, Sam Hearing Sr., Albert E. Wood, Albert Tandy and Art Killingberg.

Mr. Webb was a native of Ontario, Canada where he was born August 3, 1880. He came to Washington with his family as a small boy, lived a number of years at Aberdeen, then in 1917 went to Astoria. He was united in marriage to Selma E. Newberg at Astoria on February 14, 1918 and they lived there until 1924 when they moved to Vernonia. After 17 years at Vernonia they moved to their present home at Glenwood where they have resided since 1940.

Mr. Webb was a blacksmith for logging companies. He worked many years for the Koester and Clark and Wilson logging companies while at Vernonia. He was then with the Consolidated Lumber company at Glenwood until it closed and then worked for the Diamond Lumber company at Lee's Camp until his retirement eight years ago at the age of 76.

He was a member of the Vernonia IOOF lodge and several years ago received his 60-year jewel. He was also a member of Mt. Heart Rebekah Lodge No. 243, Vernonia Lodge No. 184 AF & AM and the International Woodworkers of America.

Surviving is his wife, Mrs. Selma Webb, Glenwood; two daughters, Mrs. Harold (Dorothy) Davis of Clatskanie and Mrs. John (Myrtle) Simpson, Harrington, Washington; and five grandchildren, Bill and Bob Davis, Clatskanie, and John, Betty and Katherine Simpson of Harrington. His only son, Alfred, died at Vernonia in 1936.

Closed Fire Season Ends

The 1964 closed fire season ends at midnight November 2. Burning permits are no longer required and the logging operators are not required to have fire fighting tools on their operations.

The State Forestry Department took fire control action on nine fires during this season. Eight were class A fires—less than three tenths acre and one was a class B fire—one acre.

Causes of these fires were as follows: smokers, 3; electric fences, 2; campers, 1; debris burning, 1; miscellaneous, 2.

Forest fire occurrence for the past six years in Columbia county is as follows: 1958, 25 fires; 1959, 16 fires; 1960, 20 fires; 1961, 33 fires; 1962, 15 fires; 1963, 17 fires; 1964, 9 fires.

The State Department of Forestry expressed its thanks to the general public for their cooperation in obtaining burning permits and reporting of fires.

Traffic Court Convictions Up

Oregon courts have reported more than 200,000 traffic violation convictions to the Department of Transportation so far this year.

The department said that convictions through September total 205,240 up about seven percent the same period a year ago.

The end of September also indicated that driver license suspensions this year have totaled 29,714 of these based on statutory provisions of the law.

The department reported that of the suspensions involved in while intoxicated convictions, charge which calls for loss of driver's license for a period from 90 days to three years, depending on whether it's a first, second or subsequent conviction charge.

By far the greatest number of mandatory suspensions involved in to comply with financial responsibility provisions of the law are licenses, the department said, are instated when drivers or owners fail to meet legal requirements.

Licenses suspended under the authority of the department included driving record recommendations of court, 134 failure to pass tests when called to do so, 379.

Director to Tell Scout Program

Girls interested in the program of Girl Scouting and their mothers are invited to attend a meeting evening, November 5 to hear Mary Curran of Astoria, district director, explain the program and requirements for organizing a troop. The meeting will be held at Washington school at 7:30 p.m. The girls included are those in grades two through five.

If there is sufficient interest the part of mothers and girls, PTA will act as sponsor for a troop.
