EARL Seawright is shown receiving certificate of service from Eleanor Bardell, board clerk, for five years work on the Columbia County Selective Service Board. He has served as chairman since the retirement of the late Willard Evenson of Clatskanie. In commenting on his service, Seawright said, "Working with such dedicated people as the members of the board has been a pleasure - particularly when they give individual classification their full attention with regard to encouragement for higher education." "We feel that Columbia county has a much higher ratio of young men seeking higher education with better qualifications than most counties in the state," he continued. Shown left to right: Robert Vagt, attorney; Mrs. Bardell, clerk; Leonard Miller, member, all of St. Helens; Mayor Forrest Sanders, member, Scappoose, and Earl Seawright, St. Helens.

Association Plans Observance Of Week with Special Events

Plans are being made by the Columbia Association for Retarded Children to observe National Retarded Week from November 15 to November 26. Mayor McMichael of St. Helens will sign the proclamation making it official. State Honorary Chairman of N.R.C. week in Oregon is Mr. Heck Harper.

Restaurants in the area are being contacted and asked to contribute proceeds of coffee sales for one day, November 20, to retarded children as a fund raising project during this week. Individual members and friends are being asked to hold Coffees in their homes.

Those serving coffees will be: Mrs. Soverin Posch (member), Mrs. Inez Langdon (non member), Scappoose, on November 16. Mrs. Elsie Pantano of Scappoose, November 17. Fran Robinson and Martha Maloney, November 23.

In attendance at the meeting on mental health held at the St. Helens Sr. high school November 9 were several members of the CARC, Donna Thorp, Elsie Pantano and Fran Robinson who accompanied Helen Gordon who is on the committee sponsored by the federal government to look into long range planning in the field of mental retardation.

New Nursing Home at Hillsboro Is Opened

TIMBER - Art Keiper who has been a patient at the Cecilia Smith home for the past several months continued to become more helpless and was moved last Tuesday by ambulance to a new nursing home, the Hillaire at Hillsboro. It was opened for patients the day before Mr. Keiper was admitted.

In precinct 25, 83 of the 100 qualified voters turned out. Precinct election board members were Mrs. Farrell West, chairman; Mrs. John Bino, Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Roy May.

Mr. and Mrs. Mac Climens of Portland, former residents of Timber, were here Sunday visiting old friends.

CARD OF THANKS

I WISH to extend my heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who assisted me and my family while I was hospitalized recently for surgery. The cards, flowers and gifts that came to me at the hospital meant more than words can express and the thoughtful acts for my family were all so deeply appreciated. I want to especially thank my husband's parents for caring for the family in my absence. Also, a special thank you is extended to Betty Curl, Esther Andrich, Lois Lawler, Peggy Brunzman, Isabel Brunzman and Margaret Davies for the food prepared and brought to our home and to Charlotte Thiringer who assisted in many ways. May God richly bless each of you.
