Map Can Give Santa's Home

Along with "Why is the sky blue?" and "Why can't I see the wind?" the favorite question of children everywhere is very often, "Where does Santa Claus live when Christmas is all over?"

Parents faced with this puzzler needn't get involved in explanations of just what and where is the North Pole. They can answer, with a straight face and a map to back them up, "Why Santa Claus, Indiana, of course!"

Or how about Bells, Tennessee; Evergreen, Alabama; Holly, Washington; or Noel, Missouri, as suitable quarters for Santa.

These are just a sample of the many towns and villages all over the country that are named in the spirit of Christmas, in the hope of preserving the good will and cheer of this happy season all year.

There's only one disadvantage to living in one of these towns. Local parents, faced with the question, "Where does Santa live?" certainly can't say, "Why right here in Christmas, Arizona, son," or the next logical question would be, much to Dad's consternation, "Yippee! Why don't wago visit him?"

COLORED holiday lights completely outlined the home and carport of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Ray on Mist route and was listed as one of the winners in the home illumination category of the chamber of commerce lighting contest.

DARIGOLD Dairy Fresh Sour Cream

You're a gourmet cook the instant you use dairy-fresh sour cream! You should see how a spoonful of velvety-smooth, delicate tasting sour cream sparks up a traditional holiday pie. Then see how fresh sour cream brings a distinctive tang to casseroles... how it adds a new, cool and refreshing dimension to fruit salads. Clip these recipes and try them over these busy holidays! INSTANT DRESSING FOR FRUIT SALAD: Arrange your favorite fruits on lettuce and heap on sour cream... right from the carton. SAUCE FOR VEGETABLES: Sour cream changes these everyday vegetables into party spectaculars... perfect for broccoli, green beans, asparagus, peas.

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons minced onion
Dash of cayenne pepper
2 packages frozen broccoli, cooked just until tender and drained
1 teaspoon white vinegar

1/2 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups dairy fresh sour cream
2 teaspoons sugar
1/2 cup chopped cashews
1/2 teaspoon poppy seed

In a small saucepan melt butter; saute onion. Remove from heat and stir in sour cream, sugar, vinegar, poppy seed, paprika, salt and cayenne pepper. Arrange broccoli on heated platter and pour sour cream sauce over it. Sprinkle on cashews. If not to be served immediately, heat sour cream sauce just enough for serving temperature.

It's so easy to get in the gourmet habit. Keep it on hand!
