TOPICS OF THE TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Williams of Madras were week end guests of their daughter, Miss Phyllis Williams, who is home ec teacher at Vernonia high school.

Mrs. Esther Ring, owner of the Mar-Lee Beauty Salon, who became ill before Christmas and went to Portland for medical attention, is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Donald Flynn, 11015 SE Madison Drive. She is feeling much better but is still undergoing tests to determine cause of her trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilding Berg entertained with a dinner Sunday to observe the sixteenth birthday of their daughter Betty. Guests were Betty's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of Portland and Fred Skidmore.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Biesiot of Mist route were Sidney Henderson of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Hanson of Roosevelt, Minnesota. They were quite impressed with the scenery in this area and enjoyed their visit greatly. The trip was not so pleasant, however, since the road conditions at present in many areas range from poor to bad.

Airman 1/C and Mrs. Roger Ostrander, their son Duane and month old daughter, Mary Denise, arrived here December 20 to spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ridling. They left January 6 to return to the base at Tucson, Arizona.

Mrs. Ruth Smith spent the recent holidays in Portland with her son and wife.

Last Thursday evening, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thompson were in Hillsboro to attend the January meeting of the Washington County Sheriff's Posse and auxiliary in which they hold membership. Prior to attending these meetings they went to Tuahly hospital to see their son-in-law, Larry Bernardi who had been there for almost three weeks for treatment, and Earl Baska who was recuperating from surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lindy of Moorhead, Minnesota who spent Christmas here with her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Nelson and family were on a train held up by floods in the Columbia Gorge. They were impressed with the good attitude of all those who were victims of the storm and they stated that most people, while disappointed at the delay, accepted it stoically and without complaint.

Mrs. Harold McEntire is at Beaverton assisting with the care of her grandchildren, newest of whom is Mark Harold Lamping who arrived January 6 and is the third child for Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lamping. Their other children are a son, Scott and a daughter, Wendy. In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Harold McEntire, grandparents include Mrs. M. J. Lamping, also of Vernonia. The babe also has a great-grandmother, Mrs. Jim Watson of Oregon City.

Glenn Shipman, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Shipman, has been appointed as chief criminal deputy in the Yamhill county sheriff's office at McMinnville, according to an announcement recently released. He fills a vacancy created when Wayne Lofton was appointed as chief of police for the city of McMinnville.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Linn have received newspaper clippings which show flood damage in Northern California. One group of pictures showed the utter devastation at Weott and one of the businesses pictured was the service station belonging to Jim Bond, uncle of Mrs. Ida Bruce and Mrs. Lucille Tomlin. Bond was a former Vernonia resident. His station was completely destroyed.

Word was received here last week of the death of a former resident, Emil Villaneuva, who passed away in Portland January 6. He is survived by his wife, Cecilia and daughters, Deloris Valeric and Phyllis Kern.

Mrs. James Johnson and children, Anne and Chris arrived from

Death Claims Former Pastor

Word came this week from Mrs. A. K. Pevoto of Pima, Arizona that her husband, Reverend A. K. Pevoto, former pastor of the Vernonia Baptist church, passed away January 4 at the veterans hospital at Ft. Bayard, New Mexico. He had been a patient there for some time.

Services for him were held at Bayard January 6 with the Reverend Troy Brooks and Dr. Willis J. Ray officiating. Veterans were in charge of the graveside services.

Survivors include his wife, Elizabeth who plans to continue her residence at Pima for the time being; a brother, O. R. Pevoto of Beaumont, Texas and a sister, Sadie, of Houston, Texas.

Honolulu December 7 and spent the holidays with her folks, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Killingburg. She was in San Francisco last week to meet her husband who had just received his service discharge and they returned here. After a visit with his folks in Washington, he will be looking for work and a place in which to settle.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thompson were at Scappoose Sunday evening to visit his mother, Mrs. Isabel Thompson at the Crestview Nursing Home. She had spent Christmas here with them, then became ill right after Christmas and has been ill ever since. She was not feeling too good Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Childs have news of the arrival of their first great grandson, born January 3 in Portland to Mr. and Mrs. Mike Phillips. He has been named William Ray and he weighed in at 9 pounds 10 ounces. His two sisters are very proud of having a brother in the house. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lumm of San Francisco and Mrs. Lumm has been in Portland since in December to assist her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Haverland have news from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haverland of Harriman, Tennessee that a 5 pound 13 ounce son arrived at their home December 4. He has been named Tony Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Schwab and family were at Astoria Sunday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Peasnell. They went to the beach at the location of the Peter Iredale and report the debris on the beach, including animal carcasses, was almost unbelievable.

Gary Johnston, a graduate of Vernonia high school who is now attending Oregon State College, Corvallis, has recently been pledged to Acacia, a campus fraternity.

Adding to the enjoyment of her birthday January 5 was a call received by Mrs. Lona Weidman from her son Robert who is in Berlin, Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Pollock and sons Forrest and Andre from Cold Bay, Alaska spent the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pollock. Forrest, age 5, flew down in November to the home of the grandparents and the rest of the family came December 12. They will be here until January 18 when they will return to Cordova, Alaska where Wesley will be working with the Federal Aviation Agency.

Don't judge a man on week-days by the kind of company he keeps on Sundays.

4-H Delegates To Attend Meet

The Oregon 4-H club conference will be held at Salem, February 7, 8 and 9. Columbia county 4-H members interested in submitting applications for the conference must send them into the Columbia county extension office by January 15.

The Oregon 4-H club conference is for 4-H club members 16 years and older, who have completed at least three years of 4-H club work. One boy and one girl are selected from each county in the state to attend. The program includes discussion sessions with many of the various departments of state government, including the governor's office. Conference headquarters are the Marion hotel where the delegates will enjoy evening banquets and programs, all sponsored by Sears Roebuck Foundation.

Columbia county 4-H'ers who submit applications this year will participate in a "Know Your County Government" conference scheduled for January 27, when they will visit various departments connected with county government.

Marine Trainee Given Courses

Marine Pvt. Wallace J. Pollock, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Pollock, completed recruit training December 29 at the Marine Corps recruit depot at San Diego.

Following graduation, Pollock reported to Camp Pendleton, California for advanced infantry training which he completed in December. He has now returned to San Diego where he was in the hospital with a broken bone in his leg which prevented his coming home for Christmas. He will now undergo further training there. He expects to be home in February.

Interest Rate On Savings Up

U. S. National Bank of Oregon has increased the interest rate it will pay on savings accounts to four percent, President E. J. Kolar has announced.

The new rate retroactive to January 1, is an increase of one-half percent over the previous rate and is payable and compounded quarterly. All deposits made by the close of business this Friday will earn interest from January 1.

In making the announcement, Kolar said the increase to the highest rate allowed for a national commercial bank has been made in U. S. National's 96 offices throughout the state and should stimulate the ever-growing economy of the state.

Let's Get Acquainted!

Do You Know This Man?

Born May 7, 1932 at Cloquet, Minnesota. Married in 1952 at Longview, Wash. Has three children. Came to Vernonia in 1957 with an eye toward relieving the country's shortage of scientists and he also had a great interest in seeing how the ball bounced.

Likes changing the skyline by establishing new scenery. Has left his mark on lots of Vernonia. Deals in a service at which he hammers away. For relaxation, he likes to ski. (Information supplied by J. W. Nichols) Answer to last week's quiz: George (Ted) Kauppi.

Field Trip Included In Extension Program

The Vernonia Extension Unit will meet Thursday, January 21 at 10 a.m. at the West Oregon building. A pot luck lunch is planned at 11:00 a.m.

The project lesson, When Death Comes, will be given by Mrs. Jessie Miller and Mrs. Estelle Bateman, after which the group will leave at noon to visit the Fuiten-Friesen Mortuary in Forest Grove. Everyone interested is invited to attend this meeting. Baby sitting is available at the Joe Dennis home.

Goldenweds Observe Half Century Mark

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore of 348 C street observed their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday of this week, January 13. In announcing the event, Mrs. Moore, Emma, stated that they had completed 50 good years of married life and were now starting on a second 50.

Mr. Moore says that he hopes to have her ready for cutting the lawn and plowing the garden this spring as she is only 83 years young.
