CWF Plans For Future Events

The Christian Women's Fellowship ladies applied a great deal of elbow grease at an all-day meeting held February 11 at which the forenoon was devoted to the cleaning of the church.

After lunch the regular meeting was held at which the various reports were heard. The group is buying a book, "God Speaks to Women Today," by Eugenia Price, which will be added to the church library.

The spring rummage sale dates have been chosen for April 22-23. It will be held at the fire hall.

Commemorative stamps or any other stamps other than the most common ones are being saved by the group to be given missionaries. Men's white shirts are being prepared to send either hospitals or a leper colony.

Bazaar chairmen were selected so that materials can be ordered and work started on them.

Plans were made for painting some rooms at the church next month. "Love of Christ" was the theme of the devotions given by Mrs. Olivia Wood.

The meeting adjourned with the CWF prayer. The next meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. February 25 in the church social hall.
