

Shower Honors Janice Pearson

Miss Janice Pearson of Roseburg, but formerly a Vernonia resident, was honor guest Saturday afternoon at a pre-nuptial shower at the home of Mrs. Wayne Thomas. Since she had already been given a shower of household items, this was a lingerie shower.

Appropriate games were played for which several guests were awarded prizes and refreshments, highlighted by a decorated cake, were served. High point of interest for the afternoon was the opening of gifts by the guest of honor.

Included in the guests were Mrs. Mary Pearson, mother of the honor guest; Miss Sidonne Pearson and Mrs. Tom Keels, sisters of the honor guest; and Mrs. Odell Pearson, her sister-in-law, all from Roseburg; Mrs. James DeVaney of Portland; Mrs. James Weller of Beaverton; Mrs. Robert Bates, Mrs. Wm. Ostrander, Mrs. Ken Smejkal, Miss Fran Dinger, Mrs. Bill Eckland, Mrs. Wm. Wilcoxon, Mrs. Jim Barlow, Mrs. L. H. Thomas, Mrs. Don Tiffney, Mrs. Edison Aldrich, Mrs. Melvin Barrett and Mrs. Woodward Sullivan.

Miss Pearson's marriage to James Milton Coxey of Roseburg will be an event of March 20.

Endowment Committee Member Visits Chapter

Mrs. Alice Johnson from Forest Chapter, OES, in Forest Grove made her official visit to Nehalem Chapter February 17. She gave a most interesting report on the home endowment committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon.

After the meeting refreshments of salad and hot rolls were served by Mrs. Ginger Johns and Mrs. Frances Hershey. The next regular meeting is March 3.

September Wedding Planned at Seaside

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Thompson of Seaside have announced the engagement of their daughter, Peggy Anne, to Tommy Lee Bruce, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reggie Bruce of Vernonia. A September wedding is planned.

The bride-elect is a senior at Seaside union high school and the groom-to-be is employed by Dynamic Radio-TV in Seaside.

Marriage Vows Exchanged At Eugene Church February 13

Miss Sandra Lynn Counts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Counts of Roseburg, but formerly of Vernonia, and Jan Steven Van Houten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Van Houten of Salem, exchanged marriage vows in an impressive ceremony at the chapel of the First Baptist church in Eugene Saturday, February 13 at 3:00 p.m.

Pink and white carnations and white tapers in candelabra formed the setting for the double ring rites which were read by the Dr. Vance Webster, pastor of the church. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin brocade made with bell skirt and fitted bodice with jewel neckline and long sleeves pointed at the wrist and accented with self-covered buttons. Her shoulder-length veil fell from a crown of seed pearls with a single crystal drop in the front. She carried a cascade of red roses.

Her matron of honor was her cousin, Mrs. Marion Knoll of Vernonia and bridesmaids were another cousin, Miss Kathy Minger of Vernonia and friends, Miss Sue Huggins and Miss Patty White, both of Roseburg. All four wore princess style street length dresses of turquoise satin and carried bouquets of red and white carnations.

Best man was Paul Van Houten of Salem, brother of the groom and ushers were Dick Getty and Randy Counts, brother of the bride, from Roseburg. Candlelighters were Steve Minger, cousin of the bride from Vernonia and Ted Dauber of Roseburg.

Marion Knoll sang "I Love You Truly and God Gave Me You." Following the ceremony, a reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the reception room of the church which was decorated in the color scheme used for the ceremony.

Mrs. Charles Minger of Vernonia and Mrs. Clifford Counts of Roseburg, aunts of the bride, cut and served the three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Les Meyers of Salem served coffee and Mrs. Darrell DeVaney of Portland, aunt of the bride, served punch. In charge of the gifts were two aunts of the bride, Mrs. Jack May of Beaverton and Mrs. Ben Westbrook of Vernonia, and Mrs. Richard Getty, Salem. Mrs. Paul Van Houten of Salem cared for the guest book.

Among the guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. May of Vernonia. Others present from Vernonia not already listed, were Charles Minger, Ben Westbrook and children, Debbie and Billy.

Revue Tickets Placed on Sale

The fourth committee meeting for the P.T.A. Revue, "A Night at the Palace", was held February 16.

Mrs. Robert Borders and Mrs. Carson Strong have the very artistic posters all finished and placed around town. They are well worth seeing and should be very good advertising for the show. Boyd Gentry did the photography work for these posters.

Mrs. Ellen Hanson reported that the ground work on the programs has been done and she only awaits the complete list of the cast now to go ahead with them. Mrs. Robert Elton and Mrs. Wayne Welch have finished making the tickets.

Mrs. Robert Wendel is busy with the signs and with helping to make some of the props and Henry Andereg is to pick up the larger props and deliver them for the stage settings. Mrs. Carson Strong has agreed to head a committee to do the stage art work.

The revue committee urges the people of Vernonia and their out-of-town friends and relatives to see this show. There is so much time and effort going into it that it should be more than worth the price of admission.

There are tickets on sale now at the following places: Fabric 'N Fashions, Mar-Ona Bootery, Qlinn's Insurance, Mill Market, Pine Cone, Brunsman's Hardware, King's Grocery, Spar Tree, Mist Grocery Store, Columbia River Real Estate in Scappoose, and Forest Grove Music Store. Saturday afternoon, February 27 there will be tickets available at Dean's Market. They may also be purchased at the door the evening of the show, March 5.

The price for adults is 75 cents, for school children, 35 cents and children under school age free when accompanied by an adult. There will also be a family ticket available for two dollars which will admit both parents and all their children who are high school age and under.

There is to be a full dress rehearsal Sunday, February 28 at 2:00 in the high school gym. It is very important for all participants to attend this rehearsal.

Abundant Food Topic for Meet

A demonstration showing ways of using the abundant food distributed to families throughout the county will be presented by Columbia County Extension Agent Margaret Allyn, at West Oregon Electric Co-op, Vernonia, Thursday, March 11 from 1:00 to 2:30 p.m.

Since these same items can be purchased at local stores, everyone is invited to attend.

Although emphasis is being placed on various ways of using cornmeal and bulgur, a processed wheat, other items on the abundant food list will be used. Other items included are peanut butter, dried milk, meat and rolled wheat.

Second Son Joins The Albert Woolsey Family

Mathew LeRoy is the newest member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Woolsey. The young man arrived early Tuesday of last week, February 16 and weighed in at 11 pounds 6 1/4 ounces. He joins a sister and a brother. He has two grandmothers, Mrs. Hazel Woolsey of Keasey route and Mrs. Veronica Boyd of Beaverton.

Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Eby of Beaverton send news that they have joined the grandparent ranks. Their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Eby of Neah Bay, Washington are the parents of a daughter, Jennifer Lynn who was born February 11 at Port Angeles and weighed in at 7 pounds 5 ounces. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Wilbur Washburn. Mrs. Eby spent a week at Neah Bay helping care for the new arrival.

Balls of Yarn Club Enters Second Phase

The Balls of Yarn 4-H knitting club held their weekly meeting February 17 at the home of Mrs. Don Huss.

Most of the girls have started their second phase now. Coleen Webb is the busiest knitter. She has already started her sweater. The club members have learned how to increase and decrease now.

Refreshments were served after the meeting.
